Dramatic Note Hints H-Bomb Already Tested

Statement by Atomic Chiefs Indicates Possession of Weapon

WASHINGTON, May 25 (AP)—United States atomic chiefs threw out a dramatic hint today that the first tests of some kind of hydrogen bomb—perhaps the forerunner of a true "super bomb"—have just been successfully completed.

The announcement, which may indicate American possession of the world's most powerful and destructive weapon, said:

"A program of atomic weapons tests has been successfully carried out" at the super-secret Eniwetok proving grounds in the Pacific.

"The test program included experiments contributing to thermonuclear weapons research."

"Thermonuclear weapons" means hydrogen bombs.

The Atomic Energy Commission and the defence department in a joint, guardedly-worded announcement, did not state that an H-bomb had been developed and detonated during the tests—which were reported to have cost $100,000,000 and involved thousands of personnel.

It said President Truman had been notified of the success of the tests.

Truman said he had given the order so that the United States could defend itself "against any possible aggressor."

The fact that the thermonuclear "experiments" were conducted in connection with tests of so-called orthodox A-bombs of the uranium or plutonium variety, indicates that at least a small amount of potentially-explosive hydrogen may have been "wrapped around" an A-bomb—and successfully detonated.

If so, the H-bomb now may be an actual reality.

Top scientists have speculated that an A-bomb would be used to "trigger" the H-bomb, because it would offer the best possibility of providing the terrific heat necessary to fuse hydrogen atoms. This fusion would set off a tremendous blast of atomic energy.

WIDER RANGE

If such a "triggering" operation has been successfully performed with even a small amount of so-called "heavy hydrogen"—the way would conceivably be opened to fabricating H-bombs of any desired size and power.

Some scientists have estimated that if an H-bomb were produced with 1,000 times the energy of a Hiroshima-type A-bomb, it would produce blast damage in a circle of ten miles radius, compared with the Hiroshima circle of one-mile radius. One scientist says such a bomb would burn people to death over a radius up to 20 miles or more.

BULLETINS

Youths Killed

SUPERIOR, Wyo., May 25 (INS)—Three teen-aged youths were burned to death near Superior today when the pick-up truck in which they were riding skidded off the highway, rolled over, and burst into flames.

Two Die in Crash

ROCK ISLAND, Ill., May 25. (INS).—Two Denver men who allegedly stole a light plane from the Quad City airport were killed today when the craft crashed and burned near Rock Island.

Tribe Follows Tragic Trail

McKinley Ross, vice-chief of the Eastern Cherokee Indian tribe, touches a match to the peace pipe for Oklahoma Governor Johnston Murray. Ross and a group of Cherokees visited the Governor as their last stop in re-enacting the tribe's "trail of tears" march from North Carolina to Oklahoma in 1838.—(A.P. wirephoto.)

To Pep Up Recruiting

Brig. Geoffrey Walsh Named Leader Of Europe Brigade; Will Tour Nation

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP).—Brig. Geoffrey Walsh, C.B.E., D.S.O., is expected to cross Canada soon to try to stimulate recruiting for the 27th Brigade group he has been named to prepare for service in Europe or elsewhere. It has about 5,000 men now, but needs more than twice that number.

The 41-year-old engineer from Brantford and St. Catharines, Ont., was appointed today to command the formation. With him were named four other regular force officers to command the three infantry battalions and the artillery regiment.

Feature of all five appointments was the return of Lieut.-Col. John K. Mahony, V.C., 39, of New Westminster, B.C., to the role of an infantryman. He hasn't been with an infantry unit since he won the V.C. in Italy seven years ago yesterday as a company commander with the Westminster Regiment.

UNWRITTEN RULE

The original reason for his departure from his unit was the unwritten army rule that a V.C. winner can't fight again. His desires to rejoin the infantry have never been fulfilled in the seven years since.

Other appointments included Lieut.-Col. Richard L. Rutherford, O.B.E., 35 of Vancouver and Kingston, to command the 1st Canadian Highland Battalion; Lieut.-Col. Edward W. Cutbill, D.S.O., 38, of Niagara Falls, Ont., to command the 1st Canadian Rifle Battalion, and Lieut.-Col. Marcellain L. Lahaie, D.S.O., 37, of Buckingham, Que., to command the 69th Field Regiment of the artillery.

Britain to Send Troops

Iran Will Fight To End, Sobbing Premier Warns

TEHRAN, Iran, May 25 (AP).—In an emotion-packed conference punctuated by spells of weeping, Premier Mohammed Mossadegh said today Iran will "fight to the end" for oil nationalization.

He warned that any attempt by Britain or any other country to block his government's move to take over Iran's vast oil resources "will soon bring the entire free world to the brink of disaster."

(Britain announced she is sending the trouble-shooting 16th Parachute Brigade Group of 4,000 men to Cyprus—within easy striking distance of Iran — to strengthen her Mediterranean garrison.)

(Authoritative sources in Berlin said Gregory Pushkin, Soviet ambassador to East Germany, has told Communist supporters Russia would resist the entry of foreign troops in the Iranian oil crisis.)

TEARS

The aged, wealthy Mossadegh broke down in tears when he told reporters of the plight of Iran's 15,000,000 hungry and ill-clad people, living amidst a treasure of oil. Two aides supported him by the arms as he sobbingly finished his statement.

It was Mossadegh's first press conference since he became premier, April 30.

In the afternoon the frail premier was reported ill, but he received British ambassador Sir Francis M. Shepheerd for what was described as an "informal exchange of views."

Iran, however, is expected to reject the latest British note protesting the seizure of oil holdings and proposal to negotiate a settlement.

Korean Talks Denied by U.S.

WASHINGTON, May 26 (INS)—The State and Defence Departments said tonight that they are unaware of any U.S. military mission having flown to Moscow from Washington for Korean peace talks.

The London Daily Express said that reports of such a mission are circulating among informed circles in Paris.

Main Flight Roads Closed to Enemy By Allied Advance

Railmen Settle Dispute

WASHINGTON, May 25 (INS) The Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the nation's carriers tonight settled their two-year-old wage dispute.

The agreement calls for hourly wage increases of 18.5 and 33 cents, respectively, for 150,000 road and yard workers, a 40-hour work week for yardmen, a cost-of-living escalator clause and a no-strike pledge until October 1, 1953.

The announcement was made by the Union and the carriers' conference committees representing the eastern, western and southeastern railroads.

Carrier officials estimated that the agreement will cost $97,000,000 a year. The railroads have asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for a 15 per cent freight rate hike.

Eastern carriers have received a four per cent interim increase and southern and western roads a two per cent boost. These would be deducted from any future increase.

Under the agreement, yardmen will receive an average of $1.71½ an hour and roadmen $1.73½.

Under army operation of the government-seized carriers, the roadmen were granted a five-cent-an-hour increase and yardmen 12.5 cents. Thus, the new increases are 13.5 cents and 20.5 cents, respectively.

Both parties agreed to set aside the 40-hour work week for yardmen until January 1, 1952, when the provision becomes effective, the yardmen will receive a four-cent hourly increase.

Red Retreat Becomes Rout Of Near-Historic Proportions

TOKYO, May 26 (Saturday) (INS)—United Nations forces in Korea closed three main escape routes to North Korea Saturday and spread out to block others against fleeing Red soldiers.

The Communist retreat turned into a rout of near-historic proportions as Allied air, artillery and tank guns battered the foe ahead of the Eighth Army's all-out, unlimited offensive.

Advance task forces, comprised of tanks and infantrymen, blocked the Red escape routes toward Yonchon, Hwachon and Inje. Other units spread out to close other routes still open to the Communists, remnants of the 300,000-man army that ten days ago made an onslaught against the power-packed U.N. defence line.

ONLY TRAILS LEFT

The main aim of the blocking forces was to trap Communist heavy equipment, including artillery, which was by-passed by Allied spearheads. Individual Reds and small groups still had the innumerable trails through which to escape by foot, but they could not drag along their heavy equipment.

The defeat suffered by the Reds during the six days of fighting up to Tuesday and the bouncing back of the U.N. forces for an offensive may develop into one of the most complete military disasters of any single battle in modern times.

Nevertheless the U.N. troops were encountering increased resistance in some sectors Saturday.

SPOTTY RESISTANCE

A communique from the U.S. Eighth Army said that air and ground observation indicated a "general enemy withdrawal from forward areas under protection of a strong screening force."

The Eighth Army reported increased enemy resistance in the area north, northwest and northeast of Uijongbu, and heavy enemy resistance north of Chunchon where a task force was mopping up on enemy troops nine miles northwest of the town.

COMMIT SUICIDE

To the east of Chunchon an enemy regiment set up a road and fire block to provide an escape route for other Red forces, the communique said.

Swarms of Allied planes also pounded the Reds, trying to flee from the "all-out offensive" of U.N. forces. Allied troops pushed across the 38th Parallel on the eastern front and forded the Soyang River at a point five-and-a-half miles north of the border.

Cyclist Killed In Crash

Death of T. H. Lowe, 48, 4312 Columbia, was reported at 2.15 this morning by officials at Royal Jubilee Hospital, two hours after he was admitted suffering extensive head injuries sustained when his autocycle was in collision with a car on Shelbourne, near McRae.

The death, third traffic fatality to date this year in the Greater Victoria area, cast a grim shadow on wedding plans of the driver of the car, Kenneth D. H. Clarke, 202 Edward, whose marriage was to take place today.

Saanich police said the accident occurred as Clarke's car, heading south on Shelbourne, was passing a bus. Lowe was going in the opposite direction.

Lowe was struck a glancing blow and continued on his cycle for more than 100 feet after the collision, police said.

Strike Averted At Beer Firm

VANCOUVER, May 25 (CP)—A strike by 50 employees of Princeton Breweries, Princeton, B.C., was averted today by a company offer of $8 weekly average pay increase, union officials said.

Rejects U.S. Draft

Red China Backs Soviets On Japan Peace Treaty

TOKIO, May 26 (Saturday) (INS)—Communist China today announced that it supports the Russian rejection of the Japanese peace treaty drafted by the United States.

A radio broadcast from Peiping included the text of a long note, dated May 22, from Chinese Foreign Minister Chou En-Lai to Russian Ambassador V. Roschin in which the Chinese Communist demanded a voice in the drawing up of the treaty.

Chou said Red China will "refuse to consider" the treaty and added that his country "completely endorses the five principal aims proposed by the Soviet Goveernment. . . ."

These were listed as:

1. Japan must become a peace-loving, democratic independent state.

2. The population of Japan must be assured democratic rights.

3. As a guarantee against the revival of Japanese militarism, the treaty must set limitations on the size of the Japanese armed forces.

4. No restrictions are to be imposed on Japan with regard to the development of its peaceful economy.

5. All restrictions on Japan's trade with other countries will be removed.

World's Tallest to Be Sold

The Empire State Building, tallest in the world and one of the most profitable, is being bought by a multi-million-dollar syndicate, it was reported in New York yesterday. Reported sale price is $50,000,000, about what it cost to erect the 102-storey office building 20 years ago. Buyers are Roger L. Stevens and Alfred R. Glancy Jr., Detroit real estate men, and Ben Tobin of Hollywood Beach, Fla. Bulk of the stock in the Manhattan landmark is owned by the estate of the late financier, John J. Raskob.—(A.P. wirephoto).

Fanny Brice In Coma, Near Death

HOLLYWOOD, May 25 (INS).—Fanny Brice, endeared to oldster and youngster alike for more than three decades as one of the great names in show business, still is in a coma today in "extremely critical condition."

The famed stage, screen and radio celebrity was stricken yesterday morning by a massive cerebral hemorrhage and has clung by a slender thread between life and death ever since.

Miss Brice, whose dynamic singing and acting made her the toast of the Ziegfeld Follies during and after the Great War, became ill at her Beverly Hills home.

She was removed to the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital and immediately placed in an oxygen tent.

Hundreds of fans have called to inquire about her condition.

Her personal physician, Dr. Myron Prinzmetal, said that she had not regained consciousness.

Her son, Bill, and her daughter, Mrs. Ray Stark, maintained an all-night vigil at their mother's bedside.

Two days before Fanny was stricken she declared that she would never retire. She had signed to do another air show in September and was busy making plans for her television debut in the "Baby Snooks" characterization.

Fanny, 59, first achieved fame in the Ziegfeld Follies when she was 18. She starred for 14 years with such notables as W. C. Fields, Eddie Cantor, George Jessel, Will Rogers and Marilyn Miller.

Panama Bars Public Life To Dr. Arias

PANAMA CITY, May 25 (INS).—Dr. Arnulfo Arias, former Panamanian president who tried to be a dictator, was banned from public life forever in his homeland tonight by the verdict of the National Assembly.

The Assembly's trial and sentencing of Arias was received with cheers by thousands of persons inside and out of the courtroom.

Arias was present when the verdict was announced, and refused to offer any defence for his anti-constitutional acts early this month.

MOVED FORCIBLY

A doctor first had said Arias was too ill to be removed from his cell, where he was jailed May 10 after a siege of the presidential palace.

The Assembly had three other physicians examine him and then he forcibly was taken to the parliamentary courtroom. A hostile crowd booed him on the way to the court.

Inside the court Arias scornfully refused to defend himself. He said the Assembly was comprised of "my enemies" and "I will leave the decision to the people." The people booed again.

Kidnap Death Charged To Guitarist

SANTA ANA, Calif., May 25 (AP).—Cowboy guitar player Henry Ford McCracken was charged today with kidnapping and killing Patricia Jean Hull, ten years old.

Her battered body was found buried in lonely Trabuco Canyon yesterday, ending a five-day search.

After hearing a mountain of evidence from 21 witnesses, the grand jury took only ten minutes to indict him for murder, kidnapping and child stealing.

McCracken, a big, soft-jowled man of 34, was arraigned immediately. He stood expressionless as Superior Judge Robert Gardner read the indictments to him.

MacArthur Denies Violating Order To Keep Americans from Boundary

NEW YORK, May 25 (INS)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur denied tonight that he disobeyed a Joint Chiefs of Staff order not to send American troops to the Korean-Manchurian border.

The General's statement, released by his chief aide, Major-Gen. Courtney Whitney, came in answer to testimony by Gen. J. Lawton Collins that General MacArthur violated military policy banning the use of U.S. troops near the Manchurian frontier.

The army chief of staff told senators investigating General MacArthur's dismissal that the general had explained that "military necessity" forced deployment of American troops near the border after he had been ordered to use only South Koreans there.

NOT DISOBEDIENCE

But General Collins asserted that "I did not state it was disobedience or an insubordination."

Whitney quoted General MacArthur as saying he was forced to alter the policy of non-use of Americans when the South Koreans troops who first reached the Yalu River were "destroyed."

The statement declared:

The Joint Chiefs of Staff were fully and daily informed of the tactical operation and the basic plans, movements and dispositions of all elements of our forces and no orders whatsoever were received from them directing modification.

"As the ferocity of the campaign increased it became impossible to accomplish the objective of clearing North Korea of enemy forces without the maximum employment of all of our own forces. The comparatively lightly armed South Koreans who first reached the Yalu area were destroyed and it became necessary to utilize all units of the command in the endeavor to accomplish the basic mission which was to clear Korea.

Canada Plans Manufacture Of Trainers

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP).—Air Vice-Marshal D. M. Smith, the R.C.A.F.'s air member for technical services, said tonight Canada has taken on the job of producing Harvard training planes for all North American needs.

He told a dinner meeting of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association that Canada is going to produce the plane in its entirety, complete with engines, and is going to "produce them for the whole of the North American continent."

ALL ABOARD

By G. E. Mortimore

Few people would blame Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret if they decided to resign from the Royal Family.

So many busybodies have their long noses pressed against the glass of the royal goldfish bowl that life in there must be one long nervous ordeal.

A while ago some peeping toms cried "Shame" because Princess Margaret went to a few parties and wore low-cut gowns.

Then a group of idle matrons pointed the finger of reproach at Princess Elizabeth because she left England to join her husband. The princess should spend more time with her son, they said.

Now the Scottish branch of the Lord's Day Observance Society is croaking "Blasphemy" because Princess Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh watched a Sunday polo match.

This sad league of Celtic kibitzers was delivered of the following message:

"Sunday polo is not in accord with the British tradition of Sunday observance. It was a wrong which calls for their own repentence and that of the nation which sanctioned it."

Two Scottish churches have also complained because the couple visited the Pope. The General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland demanded a recall of the British ambassador to the Vatican. The Free Presbyterian Church of Scotland sent a nasty letter to King George about his daughter's conduct.

* * *

Religious bigotry is an old tale, but the idea that kings, queens and princesses should set a good moral example is quite a new one. The list of English monarchs includes some notorious rakes and rapscallions.

However, most people would vaguely endorse the new code of royal respectibility, although they might not go along with the particular interpretation of it which hustled Edward Windsor from the throne.

Now that modern methods of mass communication have brought royalty so close to the people, all who wear the purple may have to tread more softly, to set an example.

But they don't have to act like 90-year-old spinsters at a garden party.

* * *

Once the kings and queens of England were absolute rulers. Through the centuries they yielded most of their political rights to the people, under pressure. As a noted historian remarked in another context, that was a Good Thing.

They did not, I hope, yield their right to be human beings. The snoopers apparently want them to do so.

There was nothing very sinful about the kind of parties Princess Margaret attended. There is nothing very sinful about low-cut gowns, except in the minds of prurient, frustrated people who see evil where none exists.

I don't know exactly what the British tradition of Sunday observance is. There are several opinions about it. I do know, however, that the British tradition of Sunday observance is not decided in Scotland, and never will be.

The statement about the princely couple visiting the Pope is almost too ridiculous to answer. Whether or not one subscribes to Catholic doctrine, one can't deny that the Pope is a spiritual and temporal sovereign of high degree, and as such deserving of a courtesy call.

The prince and princess are not likely to change their faith because they visited the Pope. Princess Elizabeth's royal father happens to be the nominal head of the Church of England. Are the Church of England and the Church of Rome at war? That is the only reason that springs to mind for interposing a chilly barrier of mutual hostility between them.

Daily routine now lays a nearly intolerable weight of red tape and ceremonial on royalty. Princes have to be trained from childhood to bear it. Let's not try to make the burden any heavier.

Next thing you know, the Cardiff Chowder and Marching Society will try to force the Royal Family to eat leeks for breakfast on St. David's Day, and the National Association of Milliners will insist that Paris hats replace crowns and coronets on all occasions.

If our royal family is to be a crew of lackeys at the command of all the cranks who pass resolutions and write letters, they might as well resign and declare a republic.

Forced Cars Off Roadway; Pays $50 Fine

A young driver who, police said, forced six cars off Gorge Road Thursday night was fined $50 and had his driver's licence suspended for six months by Magistrate H. C. Hall at a special sitting of Saanich Police Court yesterday.

He is George E. Massick, 609 Speed Avenue, who pleaded guilty to a dangerous driving charge laid by Constable Robert [illegible].

Reading the constable's evidence, Prosecutor Claude L. Harrison said the accused, after forcing the cars off the road, turned north on to Earl Grey Street reaching speeds from 60 to 65 miles an hour.

OUT OF CONTROL

"The car was completely out of control for one block . . . the accused had been drinking," said Mr. Harrison.

In city police court, three drivers paid fines for failing to have driver's licences. They were John Moore, 1640 Monterey Avenue, and Kenneth T. Kissinger, 1110 Fairfield Road, each fined $30, and Norman Bowers, 780 Connaught Road, fined $25. All pleaded guilty.

Thomas W. Ord, 210 Island Highway, and Stanley Gallop, 3332 Aldridge Street, each were charged with failing to yield the right of way to pedestrians in crosswalks. Ord pleaded not guilty and was remanded to Wednesday for trial, and Gallop pleaded guilty and was fined $15.

PLEAD GUILTY

Frank Mack, 1035 Fairfield Road, was fined $35 when he pleaded guilty to a careless driving charge arising out of an accident May 16 at the intersection of Douglas and Pembroke Streets.

Pleading guilty to a charge of parking his car without setting the brakes, William Ray, 1184 Esquimalt Road, was fined $10.

Found guilty on three charges of theft under $25 from McLennan, McFeely and Prior Ltd., Government Street, Alexander J. Gordon was remanded to Monday for sentence.

Phillip Russell, Victoria's confessed "cat burglar" again was remanded for sentence to Thursday.

In Saanich court, Orville W. Todd, Prospect Lake Road, was charged with assaulting Loretta Todd. He was remanded to Thursday without plea. Magistrate Hall set bail at $500. Because the charge was laid as an indictable offence, Todd will appear at Royal Oak.

Peter Thompson, Box 2093 San Juan Avenue, charged with manslaughter, was remanded to Thursday.

Wrestler Can Sing, Dance, Too

Chief Thunderbird, world-famous Indian wrestler from East Saanich, proved just as capable as a dancer in a special show at the Saanichton Agricultural Hall yesterday.

The 250-pound wrestler was the star of a benefit show for the Central Saanich Volunteer Fire Brigade.

Approximately 1,000 persons paid a dollar to watch the chief and his nephew Philip Paul present authentic Indian dances and sing the "Echo of the Grand Canyon" chant.

As a solo, Chief Thunderbird sang "I'm Quiet Because I'm Happy."

Said the man who has matched grips with the world's toughest: "That song always makes me cry."

County Court Judge to Rule On Race Horse Accident Case

County Court Judge H. H. Shandley reserved judgment yesterday in a damage suit of Owen Lloyd, Langford, who claimed $1,000 damages from Mr. and Mrs. C. Horner Harrison, West Saanich Road, for injuries to a racing colt.

The colt, Hindu Prince, allegedly suffered injuries while being loaded on a trailer at Sandown Track, Sidney, by the Harrisons last February.

Lloyd and the Harrisons are co-owners of the colt which has been housed at the latters' farm. Llyod claimed the damages on the grounds that the Harrisons shipped the colt to the track without his consent.

In addition, Lloyd claimed he had suffered a loss of purse and the value of the horse has declined as a result of the accident.

West Europe Needs Better Air Defence

PARIS, May 25 (AP)—Western Europe's air defences need a lot of improving before they could beat off an invader, military chieftains have learned.

Their lesson came in "Exercise Umbrella," the first test of air forces assigned by the Atlantic Pact nations to the command of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

The three-day exercise, biggest held in the west since the war, closed tonight. It involved 500 planes from fighter and bomber forces of six countries—Britain, the United States, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Canada.

Air Vice-Marshal W. A. B. Brook, R.A.F. deputy commander of air forces in the central sector, said "the results look very promising," but added:

IMPROVEMENT NEEDED

"Many improvements must be made. The exercises exposed certain weaknesses, mainly in the field of communications."

The exercise tested radar and communications networks, anti-aircraft defences and air transport elements.

Brook said some raiding planes got through to their targets without detection, but most of them were engaged by fighters before reaching their targets.

The principal improvement in communications which the exercise showed was necessary is the addition of new cable lines, Brook added.

This project already is under way on an international basis, with all countries in the Atlantic Pact sharing the cost.

Official Word Not Received On Peace Bid

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson, member of the United Nations cease-fire committee appointed to strive for a settlement in Korea, said today he has no official information on reported Communist peace feelers.

He told the Commons committee on external affairs he had heard that Pravda, one of Moscow's leading newspapers, has expressed the hope in an editorial that the fighting in Korea will end June 25, the anniversary of the outbreak of the war there.

In reply to questions, Mr. Pearson also said the United Nations should have available an armed force capable of taking to the field anywhere at any time that aggression occurs.

It would be unwise, he added, to take steps to drive Russia out of the United Nations.

G.I.'s Slip Out on Reds; Prisoners Six Months

ON THE CENTRAL KOREAN FRONT, May 25 (INS)—Nineteen bedraggled Americans—18 Marines and one soldier held Red prisoner for six months—slipped quietly across the Soyang river at Chunchon today, right into the middle of a U.S. task force.

The haggard, bearded men were dressed in the same clothes they wore when they were captured around the Changjin reservoir in North Korea last November.

They had been slated for one of familiar Red propaganda releases but were able to slip away ahead of time because their captors were literally "too afraid" to watch them.

The men said their captors had attempted to indoctrinate them with Red theories and then brought them south to the vicinity of Chunchon. There they were able to break away from the Chinese lines and continue the journey south.

One tired Marine, talking from the shower that was his first bath except for cold river "washes" since his captivity, said:

"When the Chinese heard of our attack, they were all jumpy and too afraid to watch us.

"We just walked away."

He added: "It didn't make much difference to them one way or the other.

"They brought us down from the north with the idea of turning us loose since we'd been given the full dose of Communist lectures.

"But they held on to us when they started their own attack last week."

The Americans, except for fatigue and heavy loss of weight, were in good condition, and said they had been treated "fairly well."

Their food was the regular Chinese army rations. They said their greatest problem was to survive the bitter winter cold in their prison camp in Manchuria, about 250 miles north of Chunchon.

One Marine said he had been interned with Associated Press photographer Frank (Pappy) Noel, captured during the Marine retreat in December.

No identification of the liberated Americans will be made until the next of kin have been notified.

Oddities

LONDON, May 25 (Reuters)—If you think you can cancel out that heavy meal by taking a brisk walk, you're barking up the wrong weighing machine.

As far as your waistline is concerned, you might just as well take a nap.

This is the advice of an eminent British doctor writing in the British medical journal, The Lancet.

Sir Adolphe Abrahams, consulting physician to Westminster Hospital, wrote that a person would have to walk 66½ miles in 29 hours to walk off a pound of fat or you could foxtrot for 16 hours.

Abrahams gave detailed mathematical evidence in support of this theory.

BOWDOINHAM, Me., May 25 (AP)—A dog that tried making like a woodchuck found that a dog's life isn't so bad after all.

Bingo, missing from home for four days, was found in a field—his head out of one end of a chuck hole and his tail wagging from the other. The dog couldn't budge.

Dug free, Bingo trotted to a nearby river for a drink, and started home.

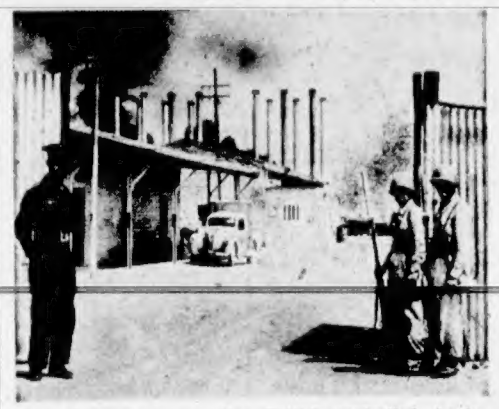
Iran Oil Well Fire Probed



Armed Iranians, guarding British-controlled Anglo-Iranian Oil Company properties, failed to prevent fire in Naft Safid well. Iranian nationalties have threatened to burn all Anglo-Iranian wells if Britain attempts to keep government from taking over control of nation's oil production.

While authorities investigated suspicions that nationalists set well ablaze, Myron Kinley of Houston, Tex., oil well fire expert, was flown 7,500 miles to try to extinguish fire.—(Central Press Canadian).

Success in Some Cases

Diet Cure for Drinkers Held Possible by Doctor

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP)—A drugless way to treat alcoholism, by diet alone, is reported by Dr. Roger J. Williams, world-famed biochemist of the University of Texas.

Dr. Williams tells of the experiments in a book "Nutrition and Alcoholism." Under his plan each alcoholic is studied for nutritional needs. These include calories, vitamins and minerals.

He says eight groups of doctors in the U.S. are trying diet treatments. In some cases success is complete and in others partial. He gives no specific diet.

NEW IDEA

He outlines instead a new idea that alcoholics drink because there is something lacking in their daily meals.

If a deficiency is found to be the cause of alcoholism, it is necessary for the person under treatment to avoid that deficiency all his life.

Laboratory rats furnished the first surprise. They drank heavily when their food was just at the bare existence stage. They cut down their alcohol when food got better. B vitamins had quick effects in turning most rats away from alcohol.

Dr. Williams says that hereditary differences are important in fixing food needs to reduce alcoholic craving. He says there probably are other diseases in which food plays an important part. Among these he lists arthritis, multiple sclerosis (a nerve trouble), rheumatic fever, gout, high blood pressure an insomnia.

Canada's Exports To Increase

OTTAWA, May 25 (CP).—Canada's exports to Britain in the next year are expected to be up 50 per cent over those for last year, it was predicted tonight in a government statement announcing the end of Anglo-Canadian trade talks here.

Representing a reversal of the reduction trend which has been reflected in Canada's trade with Britain since 1947, the increase would mean an export trade volume to Britain next year of about $675,000,000. Exports to Britain in 1950 totaled about $450,000,000.

FAVORABLE BALANCE

At the current rate of Canadian imports from Britain—about $400,000,000 in 1950—it also would mean Canada would have a favorable balance of trade with the Mother Country.

The statement indicated that raw materials would make up a good part of the increased flow of goods to the United Kingdom.

The statement, from the office of External Affairs Minister Pearson, detailed the subjects discussed at meetings of the Canada-United Kingdom continuing committee on trade and economic affairs which began Monday.

Unofficial Lists Show 50,000 Men Share in Fighting With U.S., Korea

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., May 25 (AP)—Unofficial figures indicate that more than 50,000 fighting men of 16 countries other than the United States and South Korea are in the United Nations' line as the Korean war enters its 12th month today.

The figures are incomplete here because the Pentagon declines to release them all, a United States delegation spokesman said.

But delegation sources in the U.N. and published figures combined give a picture of the United Nations' team that has just staved off another Communist offensive in mid-Korea.

The British force remains the largest, outside the United States and South Korean forces. American ground forces are estimated at more than 250,000 men. A Korean Government official last week said that the R.O.K. forces also number about 250,000 men.

MORE CANADIANS

Besides fighting Communists in Malaya and garrisoning Hong Kong, Britain is estimated to have 13,000 fighting men in the line and another 10,000 tied up in air and naval forces in Korea. Two squadrons of Sunderlands, flying from an aircraft carrier, furnish the British air striking power there.

Canada's 25th Infantry Brigade has just landed in Korea recently, bringing to nearly 9,000 men Canadian ground force strength. The Princess Patricias of 1,300 men, which reached Korea last December, now is included in that figure.

In addition, Canada has in action three destroyers and an R.C.A.F. squadron of 12 North Star planes with 1,000 men—pilots, crews, ground crews and maintenance men strung clear back to Alaska. Canadian Pacific Airlines makes two military trips from Vancouver to Tokyo weekly and one flight Westward. Private cargo vessels also have been shunted into the Pacific service to power the Canadian effort.

NEW UNITS

New ground force contributions within the last month have come from Ethiopa, which sent 1,070 warriors; Colombia, which has en route 400 infantry of a promised 1,080, and Cuba, whose offer of a company, about 200 men, has been accepted.

Australia's contribution is chiefly air and naval. Turkish strength in Korea is now about 6,000, while Belgium, the Philippines, France, Greece and The Netherlands all have maintained forces of about battalion strength.

Reds Kidnap Thousands In Germany

WASHINGTON, May 25 (INS).—President Truman said tonight that Soviet secret police have kidnapped thousands of persons in Germany, including children, who disappear and are never seen again.

Speaking at the dedication of the Carter Barron Amphitheatre in Rock Creek Park in Washington, the President bitterly assailed the Russian regime. He said:

"Faith and free government have always been opposed by dictatorships. Today it is being threatened by a new and terrible tyranny.

"Hitler and Mussolini never had anything to match the terrible secret police of the Kremlin."

Mr. Truman described the situation in Russia as "almost fantastic." He said that "nobody can go to bed without the fear that the secret police may come in the night and take him away, never to be seen again."

SLAVE SYSTEM

The President said that the Kremlin is extending its "slave system" to its satellites. He added:

"In Eastern Germany—and I have this on the authority of no less a person than the bishop of Eastern Berlin—in Eastern Germany, thousands of persons have been kidnapped by the secret police.

"They just disappear and are never heard of again. They kidnap the children between the ages of ten and 16 and carry them off to Moscow. And the children never come home."

The President singled out the Soviet police as "the kind of danger we are facing" and warned that the free world must unite "to keep this thing from spreading."

Some 5,000 persons heard the President renew his appeal for a cessation of "petty political bickering" at home and defend his foreign policies.

The ceremonies honored the late Carter T. Barron, civic leader and vice-chairman of the National Capital Sesquicentennial Commission.

VAST PARK

With various additions since it was set aside in 1893, Algonquin Park in Ontario now covers 3,000 square miles.

ALLIANCE, O., May 25 (AP)—You never can tell about this tuberculosis germ, Mrs. Annie Wheat of Alliance figured. So, she went downtown for an X-ray to see if she had the disease. "How old are you?" asked the nurse who was filling out a card. "I'm 111," replied Mrs. Wheat.

SATURDAY, MAY 26, 1951

Something Is Missing Surely

THE return of Island and Gulf Island Indians and their war canoes to Victoria's May 24 regatta was one of the appreciated highlights of the festivities. For that the tribesmen received a very nominal token reward in prize money per winning paddle. Meanwhile they had paid return bus fares, maintained themselves and their families in town for the day, and left their farms and other work to participate in the celebrations here. It comes with something of a shock, then, to hear that Victoria's only other return for this manifest good will and timely service was to hail nearly a dozen of the tribesmen into court on charges of celebrating too well and in the wrong place.

No one is free to say that liquor laws may be broken or that police officers should look the other way while that happens. The law is the law for all. What can be said, and strongly, is that it is a thousand pities that more effort was not made to entertain the visiting canoemen and their families, and to keep them—inoffensive and unaccustomed to urban waterfronts—away from the unsavoury hands into which a few of them unfortunately gravitated. It was an ill return for their public spirited action in staging again the oldtime war-canoe races, with their swiftly flashing paddles, at the Gorge, and a sequel to May 24 which need not have been.

What we would suggest is that next year a competent reception committee be arranged to take care of this situation, to fill in the very evident gap which occurred this time; and, going just one small step further, to see to it that our Indian guests are treated with a little more of the honor they do us by coming here to take part in our community holiday. That way these quite unfair odds would be evened, and there need be no glum aftermath when the festivities have ended.

The Civil Defence Picture Improves

NEWS that this area will receive some degree of priority in the supply of civil defence equipment is welcome. The Greater Victoria district will of course have to share with other communities as such equipment becomes available, but the expected arrival soon of initial quantities of gas masks, steel helmets, etc., indicates that this area is now recognized as a potential target of importance.

This is none too enviable a distinction and in the abstract one that could well be done without. Facts are facts, however, and one of the two main Canadian naval bases is located here, as well as other installations of a vital nature. This being so most people have considered it to be automatic that positive steps should be taken for the protection of the civilian populace. Not so very long ago Mr. Claxton rather implied otherwise during a visit to the Pacific Coast, and it is reassuring to learn that officialdom now takes a more realistic view of the situation.

No one wants an enemy raid here, but if this community presents a potential and enticing target it is proper that a priority of supplies should flow this way. First amounts will be small, enough only to cover the key figures in the defensive structure now being organized by the local co-ordinator. Presumably the supplies will increase in volume, however, so that at last civil defence will assume the tangible shape necessary for this community's needs in an emergency. After such a long period of inaction the positive steps now being taken are most encouraging.

Are These Trips Really Necessary?

FOR most milk routes in Victoria it was deliveries as usual on May 24, and the sight of the milkmen making their early morning rounds raised again the question: Is this service really necessary on a public holiday? For that matter, is it essential on Sundays?

Public convenience and necessity require that certain services such as transportation, electric light and power, and public protection, should be provided continuously; but it is hard to believe that householders could not get along quite well without visits from the milkman 365 days a year. The way milk is treated nowadays saves it from spoiling as rapidly as it used to do; and with most homes equipped with cooling facilities of one kind or another, the old problem of keeping perishables like milk over Sunday or a holiday has become negligible.

In any case many of the neighborhood storekeepers appear quite happy on such days to open for an hour or two, if not all day, and for householders who have no way of keeping milk cool at home there should be no great hardship in making a trip to the store for it, just as they do when they run out of bread on Sunday. No one seems to object to the butcher, the baker and other purveyors of perishables having Sundays and holidays off; so why expect milk on the doorstep seven days a week?

This would be one way of doing something about the costs of distribution, on which the last increase in prices to the public was largely based. In some cities on this continent milk deliveries have been reduced to three or four a week in an effort to keep the price to consumers down, and no serious public inconvenience appears to have resulted. Cutting out Sunday and holiday service here would save thousands of vehicle miles and hundreds of man hours every month.

CEREMONY AT PETERSHAM

Sir,—On Sunday, May 20, the fine old church of St. Peter, at Petersham in Surrey, was filled to capacity for the commemoration service on the occasion of the 153rd anniversary of the death of Captain George Vancouver of the Royal Navy. A very distinguished congregation had assembled when the Lord Mayor of London, the Lord Bishop of British Columbia and the Hon. Nancy Hodges, Speaker of the British Columbia Legislature and the only woman Speaker in the British Empire, took their seats. The agent general for British Columbia had made splendid arrangements for the occasion and two large motor coaches brought a group of distinguished British Columbia citizens down from London. The vicar of Petersham, Rev. R. S. Mills, greeted the guests and expressed his appreciation of the practical help given by the people of British Columbia towards the restoration of the church, which was bombed in the war.

The Rt. Rev. Harold E. Sexton preached a stirring sermon, and after the church service Mrs. Hodges made a splendid speech at the grave of Captain Vancouver, on which she laid a wreath. Another wreath was also placed by a representative of the Daughters of the Empire.

The weather was perfect. After a very long, cold and wet winter the lovely countryside around Richmond is now looking its best. Norman Yarrow, Elmore Philpott, Nancy Hodges and a number of other old friends from Victoria were present.

NO COMPROMISE

Sir,—We have had hot wars, cold wars, and phony wars. Now we have a hide and seek, or play tag war. On this side of the battle line, the words peace, parallel, ceasefire and stalemate, are tossed around like feathers in a badminton game. We have this phase of the proceedings all to ourselves; the enemy ignores our vocabulary entirely. He has a positive objective, and, if we are self-deceived enough to entertain the possibility that he can be influenced to relinquish or compromise on his objective we just don't understand Communism and Communists. "They that take the sword, shall perish by the sword," is a Divine declaration. The possibility of retribution at the hands of other men is an ever-conscious thought in the mind of those who have gained possessions or power by violence, whether it be a criminal, a Caesar, a political group or a nation. Even though they have been entrenched so long that they are accepted at the council table of the world as a sovereign state, the fact that they have gained and have maintained power only by the cold-blooded liquidation of thousands of millions of their fellow countrymen is never lost sight of by them. Their fear of retribution is as strong and deeply rooted as their original and perpetuated hatred of all those who oppose or differ with them.

The sooner this governing factor is recognized by this side the sooner we will realize that you cannot do business with Communism except on its own terms and realize that the great struggle has entered a decisive stage; the sooner we will guard ourselves adequately against the worst that could come at any time, or a rapidly accelerating tempo of the conflict now going on. With over a million men now engaged, the war is not minor or localized.

STAND IN AUSTRIA

Sir,—Collier's of May 26 has a delightful article re Karl Gruber, Austria's foreign minister and his persistent successful resistance to the Russians who have tried to get control of his country.

He appears to be one man in Central Europe the Russians can't bluff. He appreciates the assistance given to his sorely tried country by U.S.A., and is working 100 per cent to discount the methods used by Stalin to take over Europe.

After carefully reading Steinberg's "Verdict of Three Decades," I have come to the conclusion that the sooner all free democratic countries fully realize the Stalin-Russian menace and what they are attempting to do, the better for us all.

From "Reveille"

Up, lad, up, 'tis late for lying;
Hear the drums of morning play;
Hark, the empty highways crying
"Who'll beyond the hill away?"

Towns and countries woo together,
Forelands beacon, belfries call;
Never lad that trod on leather
Lived to feast his heart with all.

Up, lad; thews that lie and cumber
Sunlit pallets never thrive;
Morns abed and daylight slumber
Were not meant for man alive.

Clay lies still, but blood's a rover;
Breath's a ware that will not keep,
Up, lad; when the journey's over
There'll be time enough to sleep.

Nothing New

By FRANK KELLEY

THERE'S nothing new in the story of man. It used to be customary to speak of China as "The Celestial Kingdom", which meant heavenly. Writers also regularly referred to it as "The Unchanging East." It would be difficult to make either fit the trend of conditions prevailing in that land at present. On the face of it, from the stories emanating from beyond the old treaty ports and the British colony of Hong Kong, China now is anything but heavenly and unchanging.

Certainly there were periods in her long history when China had "to stand on her own feet"; and Westerners can appreciate that its people wanted to go their own ways and be left alone, in spite of the efforts to exploit the land by every European country as well as the United States of America.

There are records in writing that tell of great trials and tribulations endured by the Children of Han and of measures enacted from time to time to overcome them. These are in libraries through the world; for not all were destroyed when many literary treasures were burned during a certain siege of Pekin, not so many years ago, either.

* * *

Maybe all of 20 years ago now I remember reading—clipped the article in fact—a brief mention of "Huang Ch'eng," which means "political measures to deal with depressions." Oldest records of those measures are found in the "Chow-Li," a book of "Governmental Rites of the Chow Dynasty," one of the 13 Confucius classics, attributed to the Duke of Chow, 12th century B.C.

Translations of 12 items from the "Book of Chow" were made by Dr. Kiang Kang-Lu, of the Gest Chinese Library of McGill University. As he emphasized, comments upon the meanings of the items have grown with the centuries. His translations went to show that China has met problems that are forever recurring wherever man has met the challenge of existence.

Contained in Chow-Li are items such as "Distribution of surplus treasures, lowering of taxation, mitigation of the severity of criminal punishment, withholding of labor conscription, lifting of legal prohibitions against the use of state property, simplification of funeral services, prohibition of public musical performances and amusements of any description, encouragement of simple and easy marriage ceremonies, holding of prayer services, etc.

* * *

Some of Dr. Kiang Kang-Lu's translations were very illuminating. The first mentioned above meant government would provide not only funds for relief work but would also open up all stores of accumulated grains and other necessaries of life for immediate distribution. Lowering of taxation would relieve people from public burdens and enable them to be self-supporting, and meant that in times of depression the land tax was halved and in famine areas totally exempted.

Mitigation of punishment was intended for times of distress "when people are easily driven to crime and otherwise deserve special mercy." Withholding of labor conscription meant that the government measure conscripting all males for public works would be abandoned in certain circumstances, so that people might work more profitably on their own.

All of which goes to show, more or less, that much the same things troubling folk in the year 1951 were common some 3,000 years ago.

Reporting From Ottawa

NEWS of an Arctic crime wave which so far has resulted in seven murders, a rape and the death of a young boy from exposure has come crackling through the ether from isolated posts in the Northwest Territories.

The brief wireless messages to R.C.M.P. here report the killers—two Eskimos and an Indian half-breed—have been captured and are being held for trial. All three have confessed, confessed.

Veteran Arctic travelers are nonplussed by the flare-up of savage violence among the Eskimos, normally a happy, carefree people.

"Changing economic conditions may have a lot to do with it," one Arctic-wise police officer told me. "There's been a great change among the Eskimos in the last generation. Under civilizing influences they've lost much of their initiative, and they're less able to fend for themselves."

* * *

At Baker Lake, West of Hudson Bay, police are holding a 24-year-old Eskimo, Nukkerweennar, for the slaying of an Eskimo couple he had been living with, Seemak, 46, and his wife, Mikko, 45.

The two Eskimos were shot and killed about mid-March in their primitive camp about 50 miles from the trading post at Baker Lake. Pokedloo, their 10-year-old adopted son, evaded the killer and tried to walk through the snow to the next camp. His frozen body was found 30 miles from the scene of the murders.

An R.C.M.P. constable set out by dog team from Baker Lake in pursuit of Nukkerweennar, and arrested him 100 miles away. The Eskimo surrendered without resistance, admitted the killings, led the Mountie to the bodies, but gave no motive for the crime.

On April 18 an even more horrible tragedy struck an Indian family at Fort Resolution, N.W.T., when Mrs. Mary Norn was murdered. The killer then shot her daughter Dorothy, 11, and son Alexie, 3, apparently to prevent their identifying him. Only a baby sleeping in a crib was spared.

Two days later police arrested Victor Beaulieu, a half-breed. He will be tried for murder June 4, at Fort Smith.

* * *

The third killing took place early this month near Padlei, a Hudson's Bay post about 120 miles inland from the west coast of the bay. As police reconstructed the crime, it was caused by mother-in-law trouble. Pemik, a 40-year-old widow, lived in a cabin with her two daughters, her son, her son-in-law and the son-in-law's two children.

Okalik, the 26-year-old son-in-law, confessed he shot Pemik and her son, Arnaklooak, 20, because they nagged him, called him useless and no good, and turned him out of the camp.

According to police, he nursed his grievance for a week, then got some food at the trading post and returned to Pemik's house. One story is that he ate all the food himself. Next morning his wife took her sister and baby to the post to get food for the rest of the family. After they had left, Okalik calmly shot his mother-in-law as she bent over the stove making tea. Then he turned the rifle on Arnaklooak as he rushed to his mother's side. Okalik's daughter, Tugbuak, 5, watched wide-eyed and frightened.

Okalik admitted the murders, and is being held for trial. But the white man's justice is tempered with mercy when applied to these primitive people. No Eskimos have been hanged since 1924, due to realization by the authorities that you can't fairly apply civilized values to a Stone Age people. Furthermore, in so far as Okalik's case is concerned, had the white man not changed the Eskimos' way of life, he might have been more self-reliant a better provider and not have been moved to murder.

Something Wrong Here

(From The Financial Post)

THERE'S something extremely odd when a Labor Board in Canada goes out of its way to defend a Communist-run union. When Canada's first atom plant at Trail, B.C., is involved, it becomes a case of national importance.

This plant, employing 4,000, has been engaged in work related to the atomic energy program for several years. All this time, the labor force has been under control of known Communists. Knowing what we know of how the Communists infiltrate, it is no coincidence that they are there.

For nearly two years now, the anti-Communist steel union has been trying to wrest bargaining rights away from the Communists. Recently the British Columbia Labor Board rejected the steel union's latest move. In a 14-page report, the board sets down its reasons. Those reasons may or may not be sound. But there seems to be no reason for the board making this statement:

"No proof was brought . . . that Local 480 of Mine-Mill was Communist-dominated."

That's the sort of ostrich-approach that only helps the Communists. The British Columbia Labor Board must—or can—know as well as any informed labor man in Canada that the Mine, Mill and Smelter Worker's Union is one of the tightest Communist-controlled outfits in this country or the United States.

A special C.I.O. investigating committee found 90 per cent of its officers were Communists; that the union was run by a four-man steering committee that was in constant consultation with top U.S. party leaders, including William Z. Foster.

The British Columbia board may be right or wrong in its decision not to reopen the case, although a Supreme Court judgment says it should. But in these perilous days, there seems to be no justification whatever for an official government body befuddling the public by issuing that sort of misleading information.

The Canada Labor Board, when faced with basically the same problem, acted far more realistically. It decertified the Communist-run Seamen's Union on the grounds that it was no longer a trade union in the true sense of the word. In so doing, it virtually eliminated the C.S.U. from the Great Lakes. This and individual screening of seamen minimizes danger on the Great Lakes.

The Packsack

Of GREGORY CLARK

IT is the custom of The Packsack at this time of year to present a little piece about canoes aimed at the young people. Whenever you see a canoe far out from shore, you know that the people in it are greenhorns. The Indians and the backwoodsmen who have inherited their knowledge of canoes from the Indian, never go any farther from shore than they have to, in a canoe.

If an Indian has to cross a lake, he goes around it near the shore rather than risk trouble out in the middle. An Indian is never fond of work that is waste effort. And you might suppose he would save time and energy by heading straight across a lake. But not he. The time and effort he would have to waste, if he upset out in the middle of a lake, would be far greater than he would expend going around the shoreline. Besides, an Indian or a backwoodsman never wearies of the things he sees or might see by following a shore. There is seldom anything to see out in the middle of lakes.

Indians and backwoodsmen have another rule they follow in canoes: and that is, if they do upset, even a few yards from shore, they never, never let go of the canoe, but swim it ashore. Men sink easily. But it is almost impossible to sink a canoe.

In recent years, tragic accidents are occurring more often with outboard skiffs and motor boats than with canoes, partly because canoes, by their very nature, inspire respect and caution in those who use them, whereas larger and steadier-appearing craft invite the care-free to take chances. A canoe, if handled the way the woodsman handles it, is not merely safe: it is silent, and puts you into the closest contact with the woods and waters that it was your purpose to visit when you left the city for the out-of-doors.

Big Business

By THOMAS R. HENRY
Science Editor, North American Newspaper Alliance

WASHINGTON, — Atomic energy has become one of the United States nation's biggest business.

It employs, directly or indirectly, more than 80,000 persons. It uses for its facilities more than 2,800 square miles, equal to the size of Rhode Island and Delaware combined. It has spent, since the beginning, more than $4,000,000,000 and obligated itself for another $2,000,000,000.

These are the figures given by T. Keith Glennan, one of the commissioners. Very few private business enterprises in the country exceed these figures, difficult to arrive at because of the complications of working through private contractors such as universities.

Naturally, this business is exclusively government. There still is a long way to go before there can be private investments in atomic energy, because of the essentially secret nature of so many of its phases.

This business extends all over the world, aside from the Soviet Union and its satellites. Its operations extend from the ore fields of Northern Canada and the Belgian Congo to the proving grounds at Eniwetok atoll in the South Pacific. It includes the major research stations at Los Alamos, N.M., Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Berkeley, Calif., and a new 40,000-acre reactor-testing station in Idaho. These plants alone represent a capital investment of more than $2,000,000,000.

It is, of course, far from a profitable business financially. The returns in money are negligible, represented only by returns from the below-cost sale of various isotopes produced at the Oak Ridge laboratory. Hospitals and research institutions are the biggest markets.

Naturally, Glennan points out, in the present disturbed state of the world most of the expenditures and most of the work must be checked against the production of atomic weapons—bigger and better bombs for the government's growing stockpile. Possible peacetime uses—at the best some distance in the future—have been secondary.

Looking Back

Through Colonist Files

25 YEARS AGO—American capital will pour into Victoria this year and if the proper encouragement is given it will be invested in realty in this community, according to Mr. Harry R. Leech, prominent real estate man from Los Angeles. Mr. Leech says many wealthy Californians intend to make their permanent residence here.

50 YEARS AGO—For the first time in several years Victorians are to have an opportunity in the near future to witness a balloon ascension and daring parachute drop. The demonstration will take place at Oak Bay, and special cars will be run by the street railway company.

85 YEARS AGO—The Mechanics Institute chartered the steamer Enterprise to convey a large party of excursionists on the Queen's Birthday to visit the military garrisons on the Island of San Juan. There was a band of music on board, and, with copious refreshments, a very merry day was spent.

Victoria's Spirits Not Dampened by Parade-Time Rainfall

Fun and prolic at Victoria's rain-washed May 24 parade was provided by clowns like Art Carrington, shown with daughter, Sharon. Sporting a big red nose—even though weather made most people's blue—clown crawled on street, rode motorbike "no hands," risked life and limb to give 35,000 parade watchers a laugh. Spirit was typical of parade participants.

Two pretty girls sharing an umbrella managed to look immune to weather as they watched parade come down Government Street. High school students Noreen Talbot, 1820 Adanac Street, and Joan Gladson, 204 St. Lawrence Street, demonstrated mood of parade spectators. Matching nonchalance of parade folk, crowds lined along downtown streets forgot rain, concentrated on finest show in years.

Scantily-clad girls' drill team members put on bravest show of chilly parade outing. Rain played hob also with hair-do's carefully set for the occasion. But drill team members like this S. J. Willis School group came through smiling, won big hand from crowds as it marched jauntily through downtown streets. Seven drill teams, a dozen bands, armed force units, R.C.M.P. detachment, were among pedestrian participants. Leading hour-long procession were clever Victoria Motorcycle Club riders. Final unit was made up of riders from Western Horsemen's Club, independents dressed as Indians and vaqueros.

Wearing a borrowed slicker, several sizes too large for her, Judy Eastham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eastham, Nanaimo, hardly knew it was raining. Besides yellow slicker over her blue outfit, Judy wore red sou'wester, looked as colorful as parade. Raincoats and umbrellas were order of the day for Victorians and visitors at parade until sun came out belatedly.—Colonist photos by Bud Kinsman and Jim Ryan.

Indian Races Highlight Colorful Gorge Regatta

By RAY WORMALD

What the weatherman didn't do for the morning grand parade, he did Thursday afternoon for the Gorge regatta.

Thousands of Victorians, young and old, flocked to the scenic waterway to witness a boat race pageant which featured naval whalers and Indian war canoes. The sun shone brightly, and there was a refreshing breeze. Across the starting line, not distant from Gorge Bridge, fluttered a long line of colorful pennants.

Stationed on the judges' scow were members of the Lions Victoria Youth Band, whose scarlet and grey uniforms added to the color of the program, and whose music contributed substantially to the afternoon's enjoyment.

MANY INDIAN RACES

The regatta featured an exceptionally large number of Indian war canoes, several of which were brought here from Washington State centres.

Most were entries from Vancouver Island and Vancouver reserves—Burrard, Saanich, Duncan, Chemainus, Galiano, Shell Beach (near Ladysmith), the Songhees reserve, and Cowichan. With them came their long slender war canoes—each a work of art in its construction. Eleven-man crews raced furiously in their 45-footers.

For naval entries the day was one of stiff competition from beginning to end of each whaler race, and six-man crews pulled their way over a course of more than half a mile.

DISCOVERY WINS

It was victory day for whaler racers of H.M.C.S. Discovery, Vancouver's reserve naval division. They pulled against a crew from Victoria's reserve division H.M.C.S. Malahat, and captured again the special silver trophy awarded for the annual contest between the two reserve units.

The trophy was awarded to Sub-Lieut. James Sproston, who coxswained the Vancouver whaler to its victory, by Rear Admiral W. B. Creery, flag officer Pacific coast. Serving as coxswain in Malahat's craft was Sub-Lieut. J. M. Powell.

If anyone was disappointed in the regatta, it was undoubtedly due to long lapses between races. In previous years there was "between race" entertainment—comedy float processions, log birling contests and other non-race events. This year that phase was lacking. The program was long-drawn-out.

VISITORS' SONG

Husky Michael Underwood, Duncan, served capably as master of ceremonies during the Indian war canoe races; and during one race intermission joined with some of his friends in singing the Indians' "Visitors' Song."

In days long past, he explained over the loud-speaker system, a tribe visiting another would sing that song as it approached its destination. "If the song wasn't sung, it meant attack."

Cash prizes awaited the Indian racers following each war canoe event. Winning crews received the largest sums; but there was money for all. C. J. Harrington was in charge of distributing the prizes.

QUEEN ATTENDS

Mayor Percy E. George, and Victoria's pretty May Queen, Miss Betty Dolman (accompanied by her "royal court") were among afternoon visitors to the regatta. Mayor George paid warm tribute to members of the Greater Victoria Celebrations Association, and "everyone who has contributed to making this day the success it has been."

Arrangements for the regatta were handled by the Royal Canadian Navy and the Native Sons of Canada, Victoria Assembly.

Race results were as follows:

First whaler race—First, H.M.C.S. Discovery; second, Mechanical Training Establishment of Naden; third, Supply & Secretarial School of Naden.

First Indian canoe race—First, Galiano Island; second, Burrard; third, Saanich.

Second Indian canoe race — First, Duncan; second, Cowichan; third, Lummi, Wash.

Second whaler race—First, R. & A. School; second, Malahat; third, Reserve Training Establishment.

Two-man Indian canoe race — First, Burrard; second, Duncan; third, Duncan.

Kiwichan (women's) Indian race—First, Chemainus; second, Saanich; third, Lummi, Wash.

Third whaler race—First, Reserve Training Establishment; second, Royal Canadian Sea Cadets; third, Naden Reserve Officers.

One-man Indian canoe race — First, Ernie George, North Vancouver; second, Abel Joe, Duncan.

Fourth whaler race—First, H.M.C.S. Discovery; second, R. & A. School; third, Reserve Training Establishment.

Final war canoe race (leg fixtures)—First, Galiano Island; second, Saanich; third, Burrard.

Feature of whaler races staged at Gorge Regatta, Thursday afternoon, was spirited contest between crews of Malahat, Victoria's naval reserve division, and Discovery, Vancouver's reserve unit. Discovery captured large silver trophy last year, and did a repeat performance this year. Above, Rear Admiral W. B. Creery, Flag Officer Pacific Coast, returns prize to Sub-Lieut. James Sproston, coxswain of whaler manned by Vancouver reservists. Mainland unit will retain cup for another year. In meantime, Malahat men had better start training early for next May 24 regatta.

LOCAL MAN TO SERVE ON ADVISORY BOARD

Word has just been received that Victoria's member of the Order of the Golden Rule, Laverne M. Sands, of the Sands Mortuary Limited, has been tendered, and has accepted, the honor of serving as the Canadian member of the Order's Advisory Board.

As most local people know, the Order of the Golden Rule is an international organization of funeral directors, one of the prime purposes of which is to identify in each community a funeral director who may be depended upon to render highly competent, strictly professional mortuary service at a price within the means of the family. The Order has but one member in each community, and while it is obvious that the member of the Order in any given community may not by any means be the only thoroughly dependable and moderately priced funeral director, the Order does definitely claim that its member may be depended upon, always, as a funeral director who strictly observes the motto of the Order, and offers "Service Measured not by GOLD but by the GOLDEN RULE."

The purpose of the Advisory Board is to formulate the policies of the Order, and to guide its executives. The Board consists of twelve members. On the 1951-52 Board there is one member in Canada, one in Mexico, one in New Zealand, and nine others, each in a different state.

SLIPPERY MUD? OFF-ROAD TRIPS? STEEP GRADES? DEEP SNOW? HEAVY SAND?

A WILLYS 4-WHEEL DRIVE TRUCK IS YOUR ANSWER!

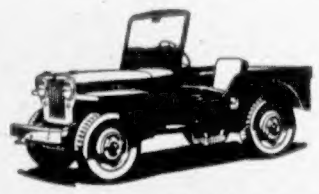
A Willys 4-Wheel-Drive truck can get through under road conditions that would stop an ordinary truck. On the highway it operates in conventional rear-wheel drive—shifts instantly to 4-Wheel-Drive for deep mud, bad roads and back-country travel. Here's a "go-anywhere", "do-anything" vehicle that volunteers for service anywhere.



The Universal 'Jeep', powered by the famed 60 B.H.P. 'Jeep' engine, is tractor, truck, mobile power unit all in one. Canada's most versatile farm vehicle.

Willys 4-Wheel-Drive Station Wagon: 2-Wheel-Drive for highway speeds—4-Wheel-Drive for country work. Carries 6 passengers or a 1,200 lb. cargo.

Next game, tonight: New Westminster at Nanaimo.

By TED REYNOLDS

VANCOUVER, May 25—In the roughest game of the season, Victoria Shamrocks moved back into a first-place tie with Vancouver Combines in the Inter-City Lacrosse League by downing North Shore Indians, 8-5, in a brutal, slashing game here tonight.

The game saw 13 minor penalties, three ten-minute misconducts and a match misconduct as referees (?) Gordie Folka and Frank Lee struggled to keep the game under control.

STORM CENTRE

It also saw the return to action of Bill Dickinson and the burly Indian coach—a svelte 235 pounds—was the centre of most of the rhubarbs.

Indians notched the first goal as Bo Bradford scored unassisted but Len Scott, Bob Monaghan and Norm Baker beat goalie Stan Joseph to give the Rocks a 3-1 lead at the quarter. It could have been worse but for the brilliant work of Josephs.

Indians outscored the Rocks, 2-1, in the penalty-studded second quarter to lag 4-3 at the half. The clubs drew a total of five minor penalties and a misconduct during the canto. Red McMillan sandwiched the only Shamrock goal between tallies by Bill Harris and Bradford.

BROKE DEADLOCK

Sparked by Dickinson, Indians tied it at 4-4 when Jack Byford scored after 45 seconds of the third quarter and carried play until the 9.31 mark when Archie Browning broke the deadlock on a long pass from Scott.

Severson broke the game wide open when he scored 11 seconds later and repeated another 52 seconds after. His second goal was the prettiest of the game as he beat Josephs after snaking and half crawling through four defenders.

Mario Crema then drew a match misconduct penalty for arguing as the Rocks continued to press until Bradford floored Severson with a terrific cross-check. Severson, who had been the standout player for the Irish, had to be helped from the floor.

Entering the final period on the short end of a 7-4 count, Indians got one back when Alf Brenner scored at 3.40, but the Shamrocks hung on grimly until things really blew up with two minutes remaining. Popham had downed Severson hard. Harris got into it and all three drew penalties with Harris also getting a misconduct.

Monaghan took a pass from Arnie Ferguson for the final goal shortly after and the Irish, playing six men to five, stalled to the final whistle.

Indians will be without big Roy Burton for a considerable time. He is out with a fractured pelvis.

LINES CHANGED

Ferguson mixed up both attacking units and it seemed to pay off. Severson took Ed Popham's place, centring Monaghan and Art Green on the second line and Fred Ranson moved up to pivot Browning and Baker on the first string. Severson and Monaghan each scored twice.

Bill Andrews, in the Shamrock goal, made 20 stops and Josephs, who at times rose to brilliant heights, turned back 24 shots.

It was the second loss in as many nights for Indians. They dropped an 8-6 decision to New Westminster Commandos on Thursday.

Royals Ousted

VANCOUVER, May 25 (CP)—Vancouver City moved into the third round of Dominion soccer championship play here yesterday with a lucky, 3-2, triumph over New Westminster Royals at Callister Park.

Ivan Carr booted in the winning goal ten seconds from time after City had been outplayed throughout most of the match. Tom McHugh and Joe Jordan tied the match twice for city, matching two goals by Errol Crossan.

Tillicums, Foul Bay Win In City Lacrosse Opener

Tillicums and Foul Bay chalked up victories as the Victoria and District Senior "B" Lacrosse League swung into action at Memorial Arena last night. Tillicums trimmed Jokers, 7-4, and Foul Bay walloped Navy, 24-3.

William Moresby, K.C., former president of the league, faced off the first ball to give the league an official send-off before a fair-sized crowd. Next games will be played Monday at Memorial Arena with Foul Bay and Jokers clashing at 7.30 and Navy meeting Tillicums at 9 p.m. Games will be played weekly on Monday evenings for the balance of the season.

RUGGED CONTEST

Tillicums and Jokers opened the season with a rugged game, featured by heavy checking that brought major penalties to Kerr of Tillicums and Johnson for fighting in the final period.

Tillicums were never headed after Bob Long matched a first-period goal by Stinson of Jokers. The clubmen vaulted into a 3-1 halftime lead on goals by Jack Moffatt and John Bamford and extended the margin to 4-1 early in the third quarter.

Jokers reduced the margin to 4-3 before the end of the period and evened the count early in the final canto but could not match Tillicums', closing kick. Long and Lawrence scored ten seconds apart and Long added his third goal at 7.30 to clinch the verdict.

DEFENCE WEAK

Navy surprised the powerful Foul Bay squad, which included Larry Booth and Harry Irwin of Shamrocks, by scoring the first goal after only 41 seconds of play. Paced by Booth, Bill Bamford, Jack Walker and Wilf Scott, Foul Bay took command and had little trouble piercing a weak defence, running the score to 17-1 before Navy scored its second goal early in the final quarter.

Walker led scorers with five goals and two assists, Bamford notched three goals, Booth tallied twice and picked up four assists, and Scott scored twice and assisted three times.

Tillicums—Attack: Jones, G. Bamford 1, Reid, Ritchie, Moffatt 1, Jewer, J. Bamford 1, Long 3, Hudson, Kerr, Lawrence 1. Total 7.

Jokers—Breithenbigham, Johnson, R. Douglas, Sage, K. Douglas, Curry, Stinson 1, Brown 1, McConeghy, Gosnell, Beemis, Scoggie 2. Total 4.

Carter, Virtual Unknown, Cops Ike Williams' Title

NEW YORK, May 25 (AP)—James Carter, virtually unknown New York negro who had lost two of three 1951 fights, wrenched the world light-weight title from Ike Williams tonight with a stunning technical knockout victory in 2.49 of the 14th round at Madison Square Garden.

Williams, holder of at least part of the crown since 1945, underwent a torturous 90-minute ordeal this afternoon making the 135-pound class limit. Carter weighed 133.

The new champ, born in Aiken, S.C., 27 years ago, but raised in the teeming Bronx, dropped the old champ four times before referee Petey Scalzo stopped it to save groggy Ike from serious injury.

ODDS SHRANK

Because Carter was ranked 12th among the contenders in its latest ratings, the National Boxing Association refused to sanction this as a title bout. But New York state athletic commission gave its blessing.

The odds favoring Ike shrank from 3 to 1 to 2 to 1 and even lower at some points after William's struggle with the scales became public knowledge.

Only 3,594 paid $13,260, a new low for the lightweight division, to see the upset. Millions probably watched on television.

Carter, biding his time while Williams shot the works early, dumped Williams for a five-count with a long right to the left temple midway in the fifth.

OUT OF BLUE

It was a shot out of the blue as Williams seemed complete boxing master up to that time.

After the first knockdown, Carter poured punches at Ike. Down he went again from two jarring rights to the jaw. The bell rang as he was trying to pry himself out of the resin at the count of eight.

Carter swarmed over Williams with a body attack that sent him sailing through the ropes onto the ring apron in the tenth. He got back at the count of four.

DOWN FOR SIX

In the 14th Carter, who seemed to have been coasting for a couple of rounds, rocked Williams with a left-right-left and down he went for six. He came up groggy. As Carter poured it on for the kill, Scalzo stopped it.

All three officials had Carter out front before it was stopped—Judge Art Aidala and referee Scalzo by 7-5-1. Judge Jack Gordon had it 6-6-1, but gave Carter 12 points to 7 for Williams. The A.P. card had it 7-4-2.

Noted Athletes To Join Staff Of Vic High

Two prominent city sports figures have been appointed to the staff of Victoria High School.

J. F. K. English, chief inspector of schools for Victoria, announced yesterday that Gordon Hartley has been named chief physical education instructor with George "Porky" Andrews as his assistant. The appointments will take effect with the commencement of the fall term in September.

NOW FULL-TIME

Hartley, well known as a marathon runner, tennis player and playground director, replaces William Roper, who is retiring at the end of the present term. Hartley has been doing part-time physical education work at the school for the past year.

Best known for his past basketball activities with Victoria Ilue Ribbons and Dominoes, Vancouver Hornets and Alberni Athletics, Andrews leaves a post as director of athletics at Alberni High School to join the staff of the city school.

Tillicum Breaks Past Jokers

Al Hudson, right, of Tillicums breaks around two Joker defenders for shot at Jokers' goal during opening Senior "B" Lacrosse League game at Memorial Arena last night. Tillicums scored minor upset by defeating Jokers, 7-4, in rugged contest. Next games will be played Monday at Arena.—(Photo by W. Atkins.)

A's Launch Series With 7-1 Victory; Hedgecock Hurls

VICTORIA	14	20	.412	12

Victoria Athletics protected their grip on sixth place in the W.I.L. last night by bopping Yakima Bears, 7-1, in the first of a four-game series before nearly 2,000 "Eagles Night" fans.

The victory, a well-pitched affair by Jim Hedgecock, moved the A's within one game of fifth place and left them only three and a half out of third in a pennant race that is close if the winning percentages of Vancouver and Spokane aren't counted.

MAINTAINS CONTROL

Although tagged frequently in the early innings, Hedgecock was always in control as he made it his fourth win in seven decisions. He left ten Bears stranded from the second through the sixth inning and only lost his shutout when an error by Dick Bartle gave the losers an unearned run. The Bears went down in order in the last three frames.

Matt Zidich, former Coast League righthander, also turned in an acceptable pitching chore but faulty support by his teammates saw him charged with five unearned runs.

TWO UNEARNED RUNS

Hal Jackson, driving in the runs since being moved up to fifth spot in the batting order, drove in all Hedgecock needed in the third inning when he rattled a double off the fence in right-centre. It scored Don Pries and Gene Thompson with unearned tallies, a muff by Tom O'Laughlin on Thompson's liner setting up the inning.

The A's scored two legitimate runs in the fifth and took care of the possibility of another ninth-inning [illegible] when [illegible] cues by shortstop Dick Briskey helped them to a three-run eighth.

Pries led the A's at the plate, getting three singles and a double in five attempts while Bill White snapped out of a slump with a double and two singles in four trips.

Ron Smith will pitch this afternoon for Victoria with John Marshall coming back with two days' rest to challenge the Bears in the arclight encounter of the usual Saturday twin bill. Warren Noyes will face his old teammates for Yakima in one game. Tom Del Sarto is manager Bill Brenner's other mound choice. The series concludes Monday, when Billy Mills, famed baseball clown, makes a pre-game appearance.

CAPS WIN

Meanwhile, Vancouver leading Capilanos rolled to their tenth straight victory although blowing a 7-0 lead. Tacoma Tigers scored seven runs in the seventh, went ahead, 8-7, in the eighth only to lose out eventually, 10-9, when Bill Schuster hit a three-run double for the Caps in the Vancouver eighth.

Vick Rejoins Athletics

Victoria Athletics added another player yesterday when they re-signed outfielder Johnny Vick, released earlier in the week. Vick replaced catcher Milt Martin, who was put on the disabled list following a hand injury received in Wednesday's game against Tacoma.

Infielder Gene Gaviglio, released with Vick, caught on yesterday with Yakima and appeared against his former teammates at first base last night. He replaced Charlie Neal, young colored first-sacker, and made a fine debut with the Bears, hitting two singles, drawing a walk and chasing Gene Thompson far back into left-field for a well-tagged ball. Gaviglio also handled himself well at his new position.

WIN

The A's broke their seven-game losing streak Thursday as Manager Dick Barrett hurled them to a 7-4 win over Tacoma in the first of two holiday games. The A's blew a 3-0 lead in the finale, the Tigers scoring three times in the eighth and duplicating the production in the ninth for a 6-3 verdict.

Although in trouble often, Barrett pitched gamely and came out on top when Hal Jackson clouted a bases-loaded home run in the seventh to erase a 4-3 deficit. Bill Paine came in to retire the last man for his manager when the Tigers managed to get the tying run to the plate in the ninth.

Jim Propst was the loser in the second game, fading after a strong seven-inning performance to get charged with his fifth successive loss.

Victoria Team Strong Bidders For Soccer Cup

In great condition and near full strength, Victoria United will attempt to bring the Province Cup back to Victoria when they meet St. Andrews at Vancouver's Callister Park this afternoon.

Manager Tom Restell announced his starting line-up last night. It showed no changes, with John Pickburn and Joe Robbins in front of goalie Joe Travis, Bob Allen, Sid Robbins and Jack Robbins will start on the half line with Wallace Milligan centring an attacking unit that has the McGee twins, Den and Don, at the inside posts and Ab Travis and Ced Robb on the wings.

There is a possibility that Gordie Bell may try it for a half on right wing. The veteran has been working out with the club while helping with the coaching duties and consented to return to action. However, he broke a finger and may not make the trip.

Spares listed are Tim Walker, Don Hendry and Murray Speller. Missing are Red McMillan and Tom Druce, currently busy with the boxla Shamrocks.

Determined to bring the trophy back, eight of the players left yesterday afternoon and went through a workout at Callister last night.

Line-up of the Oak Bay cricket team for the match against Alcos today follows: Parkins, Sparks, Odgers, Dutton, Geauvreau, A. Wright, K. Wright, Derbyshire, Thornton, Higgs and Stewart. Match time is 2.30 p.m. at Macdonald Park.

Chicago's amazing White Sox kept on winning yesterday but again failed to gain in the American League pennant race. New York's front-running Yankees kept right on moving with their 15th victory in 16 games in Yankee Stadium.

The White Sox made it eight in a row by besting Cleveland Indians 6-4 at Cleveland. Southpaw Billy Pierce won his fifth game and Bob Lemon went down to his fourth straight defeat.

Ed Lopat won his eighth successive game in a many decisions but failed to go the route for the first time this season as the Yanks topped Philadelphia Athletics 7-5. Lopat ran into trouble in the eighth inning and needed help from Allie Reynolds. Gil McDougald hit a home run for the winners.

SENATORS ROUTED

Elsewhere in the junior circuit, Ted Williams led Boston Red Sox to a 14-2 rout of the slipping Washington Senators and St. Louis Browns edged Detroit Tigers 4-3. Williams hit his ninth home run and two doubles as the Bosox handed Conrado Marrero his first defeat.

In the National League, Brooklyn Dodgers continued to make headway. The leaders nosed out Boston Braves 4-3 before 32,309 fans at Ebbetts Field as Preacher Roe made it six wins in a lossless streak by batting in the winning run. He had plenty of help from battermate Roy Campanella, who hit a homer, double and two singles and scored three runs.

New York Goants kept moving up by scoring five runs in the eighth to top Philadelphia Phillies 8-5. Connie Ryan hit a bases-loaded home run in the 11th to give Cincinnati Reds a 5-1 triumph over St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates trimmed Chicago Cubs 10-1. Ralph Kiner and George Metkovich hit homers for the winners.

In other second-round matches: Bill Mawhinney, Canadian champion from Quilchena, defeated Noel Daniels of Glen Oaks 5 and 3; Jack Ellis of Marine ousted

Youthful Bob Fleming of the Gorge Vale Golf Club took the role of giant-killer in the B.C. Amateur Golf Tournament at Vancouver's Shaughnessy Golf Club by eliminating Walt McElroy, former Willingdon Cup player, 3 and 1 in a second-round match.

Fleming had advanced into the second round with a 5 and 4 victory over Alex McMillan, while McElroy eliminated B.C. junior champ Laurie Roland by a similar count.

Fleming birdied the seventh and ninth to take a two-up lead over McElroy after nine holes. The Vancouver golfer squared the match with birdies on the 11th and 12th but his game blew sky-high on the 13th when he three-putted while Fleming sank a ten-footer for a birdie to virtually wrap up the match.

Marine Drive's Bob Kidd ousted medalist Percy Clogg, 8 and 7. Clogg had putter trouble in the afternoon after whipping Brian Hopkins 10 and 8 in the first round.

Vancouver city match play champion Hugh Morrison was also a second-round upset victim, losing to Seattle's Paul Johanson one down.

edged Dave Willey of Glen Oaks, one up.

Defending champion Jim Squire of Victoria withdrew from his first-round match and returned home because of the death of his nephew.

New Rules, Old Officers End C.A.H.A. Convention

HALIFAX, May 25 (CP).—The Canadian Amateur Hockey Association wound up its 38th annual convention today after making new rules and amending old ones designed to pep up the game and impose more strict control.

Today's session was devoted to a variety of routine business and re-election of its entire slate of officers.

On discipline, the ruling body of amateur hockey agreed on a one-year suspension for any player or team official failing to go on the ice, leaving the ice or refusing to play within two minutes after being ordered to do so by the referee.

LEFT OVER

Two suggestions which would change the hockey picture were left over for discussion with the National Hockey League. These were that the red line be eliminated and the blue line moved up the five feet and another that one face-off spot in front of the nets replace the two to either side now in use.

Three teams—Winnipeg Buffalos, Edmonton Mercurys and St. Francis Xavier University, of Antigonish, N.S.—applied for permission to represent Canada at the Olympic Games in Oslo next year. Final decision was left to the officers.

OFFICERS RETURNED

Officers re-elected were: President, D. G. Grimston, New Westminster, B.C.; first vice-president, W. B. George, Kemptville, Ont.; second vice-president, J. R. Dunn, Winnipeg. A. W. Pickard of Regina is past president.

The C.A.H.A. decided to continue its major series but made several changes designed to assure harmonious playoffs.

Al Pickard, chairman of the majors committee, reported the committee suggested the series be continued if the leagues affected enter the competition.

Each league entering the major series will be asked to post a $5,000 bond before July 15, guaranteeing their league winner will participate in the playoffs.

Leagues also will be asked to declare their winners before April 5. The C.A.H.A. also eliminated the right of players to appeal to the association on transfers.

MORE IMPORTS

Requests of the Maritime and Ontario branches for eight imports for each major team were approved and Pickard said he was certain Moose Jaw, entering the major series this year, would request similar permission. British Columbia senior clubs will be allowed six imports each, instead of four as at present.

Secretary-manager George Dudley reported on the three playoff series—major, Allan and Memorial.

After grants to major clubs, the series showed a deficit of $65. In the Allan series, about $105 would be left.

The Memorial series, the most successful ever staged, brought in more than $120,000. After team bonuses, this would leave a surplus of more than $12,000.

J. R. Dunn, chairman of the minor hockey committee, said $46,721 had been spent on this branch of play last year, more than ever before. There were 32,328 players registered.

Offers 200 to 1; Horse Long Dead

LONDON, May 24 (AP). — Here's one for the book.

Fast Anchor was among 44 horses named for the 1951 running of the Epsom Derby. An enterprising London bookmaker offered 200 to 1 that the horse wouldn't win. Michael Hurley, trainer of the horse, said he agreed with the bookie, adding he notified race officials a year ago that the horse had died.

Coe, Chapman Brilliant; Assure Crown for U.S.

PORTHCAWL, South Wales, May 25 (INS)—Two imperturbable former American champions, Dick Chapman and Charley Coe, assured the U.S. of its fourth post-war British Amateur golf title as they battled their way today into an all-Yankee final.

Coe spoiled the bid of present United States titlist Sam Urzetta to hold both amateur crowns simultaneously by defeating him in the quarter-final round, 3 and 2. Then the slim stylist from Oklahoma City went on to conquer Albert Evans of Wales, 4 and 2.

Chapman, runner-up for the British title in 1947 and last year, gained the final for the third time by disposing of stubborn Irishman Joe Carr and R.A.F. Sqdn. Ldr. Cecil Beamish, both 4 and 3.

The two Walker Cup teammates will play 36 holes tomorrow for the crown. It is the third all-American showdown in the last five years and the second in a row.

Defending champion Frank Stranahan was soundly trounced yesterday, 5 and 4, by Carr, British Walker Cup player.

Golf--- Here's How

By SAM SNEAD
Golf's Greatest Player-Teacher

In the backswing you swing the clubhead along the imaginary direction line from the green, for about six or eight inches. As your pivot gets under way the shoulder pivot follows. The pivot carries the club inside of the direction line. When the hands are head high the plane of the swing is about 40 degrees from perpendicular. If the plane of the backswing is more than 40 degrees you're swinging flat. Notice that when the hands are nearing hip-high you left arm and clubshaft still form a straight line. Then, when your hands are hip high, the cocking action of the wrist slowly starts but your hands do not reach the fully cocked position until you are at the top of the backswing. At that time your hands are head high and directly above your right shoulder. When you're in that position your hips will have pivoted about 45 degrees from their position when you are addressing the ball and your shoulders will have pivoted about 90 degrees from their position at the address.

Next game, tomorrow: Chinese Students vs. Pitzer & Nex, Upper Central, 2.30 p.m.

Chinese Students took the lead in the Senior "A" Men's Softball League by handing Butler's Aces, former co-leaders with Pitzer & Nex, a 7-2 defeat at Upper Central last night.

The Students pounded 11 hits from the offerings of Archie Sluggett and Charlie McKay to give veteran Stan Tenning his third victory.

Tenning scattered eight hits effectively and was aided by two double plays by his infield. He walked only one batter and struck out one.

The strike-out was an important one. Trailing 4-2 in the sixth, Aces put runners on second and third with only one out. Tenning forced Sluggett to fly to right field and whiffed Will Benn on five pitches to end the threat. Benn singled with two out in the ninth to become the only base runner in the final three innings.

Tenning started the Students' scoring in the third when he singled, stole second and completed the circuit on Jimmy John's single and Toy Mar's long fly.

John, with three singles in five trips, and Tom Derr with a two-run triple, two singles and a walk, paced the Student attack.

Bearish Moves Resisted, Stocks Gain on Average

By The Associated Press

Stocks made a determined and successful stand against bearish inroads in a quiet New York market yesterday.

Although the market finished higher on average, it did not come out without showing scars—notably in the oil division.

Among leaders advances generally terminated around the day's far mark.

An indication of the narrowness of the market is shown by the fact that in the list of 16 most active issues, the biggest advance was 50 cents and the greatest decline was 25 cents.

TORONTO QUIET

Trading was irregular and extremely quiet on the stock market. Volume was about 900,000 shares.

Industrials tended a little lower. Steels, utilities, agricultures, textiles, foods, liquors and manufacturing companies showed a majority of losses.

Papers held steady and constructions were higher. Banks, refining oils and retail stores were about balanced.

MONTREAL LOWER

Securities again lapsed into an irregularly lower price path on the Montreal Stock Exchange and Curb Market. Trading was moderately active.

Gains held a fair margin over losses toward the close, although a good number of issues were unchanged. Changes ranged from small fractions, which were in the majority, to more than a point in either direction.

VANCOUVER MIXED

Trading showed signs of improvement on the Vancouver Stock Exchange as both oils and base metals showed up with a mixed trend.

Major oil changes were: Home Oil up .50 to 14.00; Atlantic down .10 to 2.80; Superior down .01 to 1.01, and Calmont down .01 to 1.05.

WINNIPEG ACTIVE

Dealings were fairly active on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, particularly in oats. Prices of all grains generally moved higher, aided by advances on United States markets.

American houses were on both sides of the market in oats trade, with the buying outweighing the selling.

London Market Rallies at News

LONDON, May 25 (Reuters) — Sentiment improved today on the latest news from Iran, and the London Stock Exchange ended the week on a bright note.

Under the lead of oils most sections moved higher following a statement by the Iranian premier that his government intends to keep the Anglo-Iranian Company intact and to continue the flow of oil to the world. The exception to the general trend was provided by British Government funds which, at the outset, resumed the recent decline. Later stages, however, brought a rally from the lowest and the section closed steadier.

Among industrials, engineerings and electrical equipments were again wanted. Buying interest maintained the advanced levels.

Anglo-Iranian was sharply higher among oils and there was fresh buying of British-controlled stocks on liquidation hopes.

The Korean news brought brightness to Japanese bonds but Germans eased slightly with profit-taking on recent rises.

In the mining section, coppers advanced on the increase in the United Kingdom price of the metal, while gold shares were selectively firmer.

Stock closing: Babcock & Wilcox, 70s 9d; Boots Pure Drug, 50s 9d; Canadian Pacific, $33.50; Central Mining, 12 11/32; Consolidated Gold Fields, 48s 9d; Courtaulds, 48s 9d; Hudson's Bay Co., 110s 3d; Imperial Chemical 30s 7½d; Metal Box, 52s; Mexican Eagle, 23s 9d; Rand Mines, 145s.

Tighter Canadian Credit Controls Now Beginning to Take Effect

By W. T. GALT
Colonist Business Editor

Bank credit controls are beginning to mesh, but Canada will have to wait for a month or two before there is any definite indication of how the curbs are working, Gordon R. Ball, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, said on a visit to Victoria yesterday.

Mr. Ball said "the trend of Canadian business since the war has consistently stumped the experts. They expected a post-war depression that has never materialized.

"Business, instead, has mounted year by year," he said.

But he said that there was now a tightening of credit that may be indicated by June 17 when the chartered banks have completed their statistics on May loans.

Although the bank loan curbs took effect in March, Mr. Ball agreed that chartered bank loans continued to increase during March and April.

SOME FOR DEFENCE

"We couldn't cut down on loans and credit overnight," he said. "The increase in loans is along credit lines authorized before the controls and is not contrary to the Bank of Canada's request to reduce loans." He pointed out that some of the new loans are also defence loans.

He said that the chartered banks adopted the new controls voluntarily. "We were glad to do it when we saw that it would be for the good of the country," he said.

He said that private businesses which find shorter profits under the curbs and in defence work should feel the same way.

NONE BADLY HURT

Meanwhile, he said, he has seen no evidence that anyone has been badly hurt by the new controls. He said that businesses accustomed to obtaining credit at the bank to operate may continue at their pre-control rates, but that increases in credit would be hard to arrange.

Such businesses will have to look at the receivables and go out after their collections, the general manager said.

He hinted that the higher interest rate on bonds left the bank in the position where it could not increase very far its present rate of loans.

"We can only loan what we have in the till," he said. "Previously if we wanted to loan more we could cash in some Dominion bonds. But now the Bank of Canada won't cash them."

Uncle Wiggily Story - - - By Howard Garis

ALL AROUND

Foxie Woolfie and Bobbie the cat jumped into the squad car of Chief the police dog. They were going to take the trail after three bad foxes that had tried to catch Bunny the orphan rabbit. Chief blew his siren horn which went "WHEEEEE!" Then the police dog started his ...

"Wait! Wait!" shouted Uncle Wiggily. "Aren't you going to take me with you to help drive those bad foxes out of Woodland?"

"Do you really want to go, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Chief.

"Certainly I want to go," replied the rabbit gentleman. "I want to make sure those bad foxes will never trouble Bunny again."

"Then hop in your car and come with us," said Chief.

"And don't be afraid when we meet those bad foxes," said Bobbie the bob cat. "Foxie Woolfie and I will take care of you, Uncle Wiggily."

"Thank you, but I'm not afraid," said Mr. Longears. "I can take care of myself. Look I have this." Uncle Wiggily took something from his pocket and showed it to Bobbie.

"What is it?" asked Bobbie.

Just then Uncle Wiggily pointed what he had in his paw at the bob cat and a stream of water squirted in Bobbie's face, wetting his whiskers.

"This is a water pistol," explained Uncle Wiggily.

"Ha! Ha! Yes I am quite sure," said Bobbie as he wiped his face on his handkerchief. "It's a water pistol all right."

"I am so sorry," exclaimed Uncle Wiggily. "I really didn't mean to squirt you, Bobbie. I was just trying to press the rubber bulb and squirt water at your. Please excuse me."

"Because you have Uncle Wiggily," shouted Bobbie the bob cat. "The fact I am glad that you have a water pistol. I have been looking for one all over town this morning. But now I won't have to look any more. I'll get my water pistol and squirt back at you."

"I am glad I caused you," said the rabbit gentleman. "I am sure if I could use water pistol at those bad foxes they would run away and not come back."

"I hope that happens," said Chief. "But now we must hurry on the trail of those bad foxes. I wonder if they will be asleep in the strip forest or where [illegible] they?"

"We will never get there as fast as we are," said Wiggily.

"Then step on the gas," said Chief.

"I am trying to get the car," said Uncle Wiggily.

"Wait! Wait, Chief, if you please!"

"What is it, Uncle Wiggily?" the police dog asked as he took his paw off the gas pedal. "Why do you want me to wait?"

"So that I may fill some more water in my pistol," answered Mr. Longears. "I want to be well armed when I meet those bad foxes. Bobbie I will go to Hollow Tree School and get my water pistol again."

"Never mind doing that now," said Chief. "I know a road just a little farther along this woodland trail. You can stop there and load your pistol with plenty water."

"Yes, that will be best," said Uncle Wiggily.

And besides," spoke Bobbie ... "if you squirt plenty water at the bad foxes it will make them run away much faster."

"Ha! Ha!" agreed Mr. Longears. "That will be a good joke on them. Drive on, Chief, if you please."

Chief [illegible] his siren car. At the [illegible] Uncle Wiggily [illegible] mother fox and kit. [illegible] fox.

"Now don't make any noise," whispered Chief as he turned off the ignition switch and put the brakes on gently. "We will get out of the car without making any noise. We will sneak up on them, and when I get around those foxes and surprise them, I will [illegible]."

Uncle Wiggily and his friends were soon all around the stump. Were the foxes still asleep? I can tell you about that in the next story if the foot of the stairs doesn't step on the pussy cat's tail and make her mew.

Morning Rain No Dampener As City Marks Victoria Day

By BARNEY McKINLEY

Canada went back to work yesterday after a nation-wide round of parades, sports events, family gatherings, travel and the traditional fireworks displays.

Celebration of the May 24 holiday had a special significance this year as the Commonwealth paid annual tribute to the memory of Queen Victoria—an exact half century after her death.

On the grounds of this city's Legislative Buildings the statue of the Queen who headed the Empire for 63 years was rain drenched part of the day.

Most other spots in Canada the weatherman managed to maintain better relations with the holidaying public.

But it took more than a little rain to dampen the enthusiasm of Victoria's parade as its military units saluted the Cenotaph near the Queen's statue when the hour and 15-minute long parade dispersed.

Last to salute was the sun which shone tantalizingly just as the last damp parade participants were crossing the Causeway.

Later the sun came out to bless the day in ardent modern fashion to parade the motor-cycle show, Georgia pageant, horse show, sunset ceremony and fireworks displays with a chance to hit some spectacular high notes.

It also boasted which Victoria Athletics' local baseball team, with a game from Tacoma Tigers to stop a seven-game losing streak. In the first game the Athletics lost again.

In keeping with the spirit of May 24 celebrations, pass two Boulevard Boy scampered down the fairway to Cadboro Bay golf course. This time Caddie had met the ball.

Fete Prizes At Meeting

SOME lucky person next Wednesday night will become the owner of a [illegible] cow at the grand prize in the Greater Victoria Celebrations Association's May 24 festivities.

Name of the winner will be decided at a meeting of the association Wednesday night in the council chamber at City Hall.

Only persons holding a [illegible] membership ticket can attend the meeting and be eligible for the [illegible] prize. At the same meeting caps will be paid for the [illegible] street parade [illegible] awarded.

Chairman Lloyd Hooker [illegible] for the [illegible] ship [illegible] be kept. Members [illegible] secretary's office [illegible] Government street.

Date Confusion Cleared

Also in keeping with the occasion the Daily Colonist distributed 24,000 free copies of a May 24 souvenir edition despite early distribution difficulties because of the rain.

Demand was continuing for the souvenir paper yesterday as Victorians and visitors sought extra copies for mailing.

The usual confusion over Empire Day and Victoria Day dates tangled celebrations on the Commonwealth scale. In Canada, May 24 is a holiday commemorating the birthday of Queen Victoria in 1819.

In other parts of the Commonwealth the day is Empire Day. In Canada Empire Day is separate and is observed on the last school day before Victoria Day. In this case May 23.

Children in this city as in other parts of Canada mark the date with programs dedicated to the Commonwealth ideal.

But May 24 saw the week-end parks picnics and resorts in the part of the week before [illegible] for the [illegible] of summer vacations as the [illegible] of [illegible].

This year heavily travel was slowed by the unsettled weather, though thousands of Upisland and other visitors flocked to Victoria for the famous May 24 program.

Chance that Victoria Day may be switched to the nearest Monday to meet pleas for "long week-end" holidays is still undecided.

The bill before the House of Commons at Ottawa is not likely to come up again this session—a matter of less concern to this year's May 24 celebrations than the weather.

In contrast to the local scene Thursday, Ontario had fine weather in the rural [illegible] scheduled, and Manitoba had prepared a program of golf games and fireworks displays with temperatures around 80.

Unconcerned by History

In the far north, Eskimos and whites celebrated under cloudy skies with temperatures between 10 and 15 above.

Across the land schools, banks and most business places closed for the holiday in memory of the queen whose reign spanned Canada's early history from the 1837 rebellions through Confederation in 1867 and the early part of the 20th Century.

But Thursday, Victoria was in no mood about history. Nearly 35,000 persons, carrying an estimated 10,000 umbrellas, lined the downtown streets to watch one of the wettest and at the same time finest parades in May 24 history here.

AWAY ON TIME

Victoria Elks Lodge, in charge of the parade for the second year, got the first unit away from Royal Athletic Park assembly grounds at 10:15 a.m.

A crew of 32 parade marshals kept the wheels rolling after that despite minor difficulties which at one point separated the parade into two sections.

First aid men were posted along the parade route and special seats set up on Pandora Green for aged persons watching the show. In another section patients from Veterans Hospital and Mount St. Mary, including 40 stretcher cases, were given a first class view of the fun.

A total of .12 inches of rain—more than a Victoria Day celebrations here has been dampened by since 1942's .3 inches fell up to 11:40 a.m.

But there wasn't much grousing. The general feeling seemed to be if the parade participants were game enough to carry on, the watchers could maintain their cheerfulness.

CROWD CHEERFUL

Then everybody divided time between watching the parade and watching for a patch of blue sky big enough to fashion a beautiful day.

The crowd stayed cheerful enough to contribute a total of $1,021.59 to May 24 collection gathered each year by the fabulous Joe North.

This year, the money—$683.33 of it from program sales—went to the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

Honor position in the parade went by right to May 24 queen, 16-year-old Betty Dolman, still fresh and smiling despite rain and the long round of duties attendant on the role of queen.

Seated on an irridiscent "butterfly" throne, a feature of the royal float contributed by T. Eaton Ltd., the queen accepted homage of rain-spattered subjects.

Later, surrounded by her court, she viewed the remainder of the parade from a vantage point on the Empress Hotel grounds.

Inevitably the rain contributed amusing sidelights to the procession as bands, floats, drill teams, clowns period cars. Parade of Sailors and dignitaries cars wended their way over the newly washed streets.

A sailor on parade duty stood unmoving as white liquor from his sun-mer cap trickled down his face. children peered out from vantage points inside the coats of parents, the Beaconsfield Hath School Band marched by in transparent slickers.

The paper lion of which a dragon in the depths of the Chinese Masonic Athletic Association survived the rain test and was still cavorting to the crowd's amusement at the end of the parade.

The navy float "The R.C.N. Steams on" looked particularly appropriate with rain hissing on an old fashioned boiler being fed by a grimy stoker.

Threatened too were costly uniforms of drill teams as the water took the fluff out of plumes and dampened coastal suits.

FEWER FLOATS

The rain reduced, in time however, to give even the wettest clown a chance to dry speedily. Before units were finished dispersing the sun had begun to redeem the day.

This year heavily travel was slowed by the unsettled weather, though thousands of Upisland and other visitors flocked to Victoria for the famous May 24 program.

Chance that Victoria Day may be switched to the nearest Monday to meet pleas for "long week-end" holidays is still undecided.

SUN JOINS IN

In the afternoon and evening the weatherman started putting his heart into support of the May 24 celebrations. Under a bright sky the George Regatta, promoted by the R.C.N. and the Native Sons of Canada, Victoria Assembly, was run off to the tune of flashing blades and the music of the Victoria Lions Youth Band.

An estimated 3,000 persons lined the shores of the Gorge waters or watched from vantage points on the bridge as Indian war canoe races and navy whaler contests churned up the sun flecked stream.

Lovers of good horsemanship also got the benefit of the late in the day sun as 2,500 took in the Victoria Riding and Hunt Club show at Cedar Hill Crossroad.

FINE SHOWS

Best aggregate of jumpers to go through their paces in a 15-year history of horse shows here were among features that thrilled the large crowd. Show took almost five hours to complete.

Another 3,000 patrons enjoyed two hours of fast entertainment at the Victoria Motorcycle Club rodeo.

The thrill-packed exhibition, topped with "stunt" rider Al Lewis crossing his bike through a flaming wall, kept Macdonald Park spectators on the edge of their seats.

Top entertainment was the children's program at Children's Gaiety Garden Library, Tattersall Drive, Saanich. More than 100 young actors took part in a program enjoyed by 2,000.

Impressive sunset ceremony, an annual feature of May 24 celebrations also drew thousands to the twilight scene at the Legislative Building grounds.

WEATHER TRICKY

In a hushed silence they watched as the colors came down from the towering flagpole, a bugler sounded the "Sunset Call" and the guard presented arms.

Weather had one more trick to play on the Greater Victoria May 24 Celebrations Association. The breeze which sprang up in the evening checked the pace of the big fireworks display.

But it was a thrilling display too in keeping with general tone of revel and celebrations.

Tribute to Victorians for their wholehearted co-operation in May 24 observances was paid by Alderman Hollis Hunter, chairman of the celebrations committee.

THANKS EXPRESSED

He said attendance of 5,000 persons at Grand Pageant in Royal Athletic Park, Wednesday, had helped put the celebrations over in the financial sense as well.

Praise was sounded also by Mayor Percy George.

The mayor called the spirit of willingness and co-operation of spectators and participants "a wonderful demonstration."

Think Catch Record For Halibut

NANAIMO, May 25 — Jiggs Gannon and Les Akencloske, his fishing partner, landed a fish in Hull Harbor which is believed to be a record. The pair landed a 223-pound halibut on regular commercial lines.

It required a couple of revolver shots to quieten the fish to land it. It was hauled in by the boat machinery and they were forced to take advantage of every swell to get it aboard.

The fish was 7 feet long and 4 feet 6 inches wide.

Victoria's Beauty, Progress Praised

—AROUND TOWN—

Victoria's combination of beauty and business won praise from a visiting banker yesterday.

Gordon R. Ball, general manager of the Bank of Montreal, here on an annual inspection tour, said: "It is always a pleasure to come to Victoria and to see at first hand your remarkable combination of natural beauty, amenities of gracious living and withal your vigorous industrial and commercial progress."

"Victoria has been facing up to the problems of expansion inevitable in a community whose population has increased by about 50 per cent in ten years," Mr. Ball said.

"And behind that growth in terms of population there is an industrial development important in itself and of significant promise for the future.

SMALL TRAVEL INCREASE

Local transportation officials said yesterday holiday travel over May 23 and 24 was slightly greater than normal, but less than that of previous years.

Dull weather and the occurrence of the holiday celebrations in the middle of the week were blamed for the relatively low volume of incoming and out-going travelers.

Vancouver Island Coach Lines and T.C.A. spokesmen said business was "a little heavier" but not as brisk as it was expected.

Cloudy and rainy weather cut down the usually heavy exodus to Thetis Lake and Cordova Bay.

Some Car Trouble

Careful Holiday Driving Lauded by Police Chiefs

Greater Victoria police chiefs yesterday joined in showering praise on motorists for the sane way in which they celebrated the May 24 holiday.

On the whole they agreed the motoring public had behaved well. As usual there were a few drivers who landed in trouble.

R.C.M.P. highway patrol reported An accident on Chanteclair corner, Island Highway, which sent Lum Heng Chum of Metchosin to Royal Jubilee Hospital unconscious early yesterday morning. Police said Chum lost control of his truck and ran off the road. Damage amounted to $500. The driver, who regained consciousness about 10 a.m. yesterday, is reported to be in "fair" condition.

FOUR-CAR CRASH

R.C.M.P. also attended a four-car collision Thursday morning at Glen Lake on Sooke Road. Total damage was bout $600, but no one was injured. Drivers involved were Richard L. Rumsby, Sooke; Fred J. Willway, Glen Lake; John M. Elliott, Jordan River, and W. J. Stephenson, Sooke.

Police said the accident occurred when Rumsby was overtaking Elliott and Stephenson, and met Willway coming in the opposite direction. Heaviest part of the collision was between Rumsby's car and Willway's. The Stephenson car was in collision with the rear of Elliott's car.

CYCLISTS TREATED

Work Picture Misleading City Trades Council Asserts

Victoria Building Trades Council yesterday entered a protest against what it called misleading pictures of employment conditions.

Spokesmen for the council, which represents carpenters, plumbers, electricians and other construction trades unions charged National Employment Service officers were partly responsible because of a too optimistic tone in their reports.

A week a[illegible] employment in spite of [illegible] offices were quoted as urging the importation of workers from Europe "without delay."

They forecast a shortage of labor as the nation heats up employment peak around September.

Yesterday B.C.F.C. officials denied the need to import construction workers to Victoria and district, [illegible] other parts of British Columbia.

STILL JOBLESS

They said union members in this area were still seeking jobs in spite of the high level of employment reported by the N.E.S.

Quoted figures given were for the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, A.F.L. Local 1-38. Labor [illegible] members of the [illegible] without jobs there [illegible] office, it was said.

The [illegible] operators in Victoria and the Nanaimo [illegible] superintendent at least the B.C. [illegible] was at odds with figures published at Ottawa by the Federal Department of Labor. The report showed 2,854 [illegible] applicants on the lists on April 19.

On Apr. 20, 1950 the figure was 4,154—about 1,000 more.

For Victoria the totals were 2,154 this year, 3,554 last.

NO OBJECTION

The building trades members said they had "no objection to a proper program of importation of displaced persons."

"But we object to stories about the great necessity of bringing in workers when our own men are still unemployed," they stressed.

The labor department's figures were augmented by a report from Hon. Milton F. Gregg, minister of labor, which said "the rate of absorption of job seekers into employment had by no means reached a peak at April 19."

A breakdown of the 278,000 job applicants at that date gave 16,000 unskilled workers, 27,000 skilled and semi-skilled construction workers, and 10,000 wood workers among other categories.

At the same time the increasing tempo of an expanding defence production was being felt, the labor minister said.

Increases had occurred over the past year of 1,000 aircraft industry workers, 1,000 in ship building, 1,500 in primary iron and steel manufacturing and machinery, 2,500 in smelting and refining of non-ferrous metals, 1,000 in chemicals, the minister reported.

Effects of extensive resource developments were only beginning to be felt, the report added.

On the list of developments where work is still confined largely to the construction trade were the railway to Quebec Labrador iron deposits and the diversion of water power for the new aluminum project in British Columbia.

Meanwhile the report from C. A. Medley, manager of the Victoria N.E.S. office covering the week ending May 24, was still insisting jobs were going begging.

"Several large orders for general labor for our flour, employers remain unfilled because of a shortage of young, single physically capable men," the report said.

VACANCIES

It also noted vacancies for wood [illegible] an assistant [illegible] keeper, two drivers, bus drivers and roofers.

Other items were calls for seven cooks for a holiday job for summer and for motor-broker [illegible] at an upholstering company.

In the women's section urgent need for qualified stenographers, women drivers, practical nurses, restaurant workers, housekeepers and cook-generals was seen, the unemployment lists on another downward slide.

The report said demand for technical executive and professional workers and skilled trades men in all parts of the nation "was steadily increasing."

It listed jobs for radiologists, design, mechanical, electrical, civil and city engineers, mechanical and architectural draughtsmen, structural steel workers, pipe welders, pipe fitters, wood patternmakers, service station manager.

General mill and placer mine laborers are also wanted, the report said.

Sewer Systems Advised

Esquimalt Council is being urged to suspend the issuing of building permits in the new Park Lands subdivision until public sewers are installed.

The recommendation has been made by Lawrence Gropp, chief sanitary inspector for Victoria and the Local Board of Health, in a report on a survey of septic tank installations in the municipality.

Mr. Gropp reported that at present there is no [illegible] of any [illegible] dealing [illegible] septic tanks in the area. However most of the [illegible] vacant properties are of such [illegible] formation and [illegible] unsuited for [illegible] sewage disposal systems, he said.

"No more building permits should be issued [illegible] Drainage [illegible] be established [illegible] the contractor of the land will [illegible] sewer be [illegible] sewage going from a septic tank [illegible] the effluent [illegible] same property [illegible] a nuisance."

Dealing with the Shirley Road and Latham Street area, Mr. Gropp said [illegible] houses already are appearing in this subdivision.

"Some was observed in the gutter on the west side of Shirley Road together with characteristic septic tank effluent smell," said the inspector.

He said the heavy clay is unsuitable for the disposal of septic tank effluent.

"These conditions will become worse and eventually some effective plan for sewering this area will have to be considered," said the inspector. "These plans should be prepared to include Craigflower Road from Tolmie Road to the boundary."

Bar Labor Youth Float On Grounds of Ill Will

A float entered by the National Federation of Labor Youth was disqualified from the May 24 parade by officials.

They said it would create ill feeling among spectators.

The float carried "No Conscription" signs and others which allegedly criticized Canada's part in the war against Communism.

Another float urging signing of a peace pact covered the parade route but drew little comment from the crowds.

It followed closely behind a marching detachment of R.C.M.P. Name of the float's sponsors was not displayed.

DISCRIMINATING

A small, rain-drenched cocker spaniel answering absent-mindedly to the name of "Ginger" was among interested spectators at the May 24 parade.

Oblivious of the fact he was sitting in a puddle, Ginger watched floats and other parade features with great show of attention turning his head to follow each item as it went by.

Then to prove he knew exactly what he was looking at, he snapped at a passing policeman.

Human spectators said the small dog had been waiting some time before the parade started and didn't leave until he had seen all there was to see.

TOLD YOU SO

What the celebrations committee needs worse than a timetable is a tide table according to the district's fishermen.

Following Thursday's rainy parade, local mariners were saying "I told you so" on the score of the weather.

They based their forecast of unsettled weather on the fact tides have been high all this week "and that always means rain."

Thursday's the highest tide, was exactly ten feet, and it had run slightly above that for three days before. Yesterday it was down to nine feet seven inches and today it won't go about eight feet five inches.

Better watch that tide mark next May 24.

CADDY, OF COURSE

A lot of people thought they saw Victoria's famous Caddie, the sea serpent, in the May 24 parade. But it wasn't so.

An effigy representing Caddie was draped over a welcome car that took part in the parade, but actually the sea monster was being observed about that time in the waters of Brentwood Bay.

Two Victoria fishermen who refused to give their names "because we might be laughed at," said they saw Caddie lying just under the surface of the water about 50 feet from their boat.

They described him as about 18 feet long with a big black fin on his back about ten inches thick and a tail like a shark."

The sea serpent later raised a head just one "like a snake" before diving down and disappearing, the fishermen said.

They scoffed at the idea they might have seen a sea lion.

"We know a sea lion when we see a sea lion, one of them stated. "Besides they've all been killed in the bay."

Teachers Swarming To School

A summer school enrollment in excess of 1,500 is anticipated by Department of Education officials who have already received registrations totaling 1,362.

An enrollment of 1,500 would exceed last year's all-time high registration.

Officials of the summer school regard the increase as a practical demonstration of teacher interest in obtaining further specialized training.

A growing need for more living accommodation for out-of-town teachers for the five-week period the school is in session, was pointed out by school officials.

The summer school office is attempting to meet the problem by compiling a list of available accommodation. In all cases, it was stated, housing is required only for the period from July 3 to August 3.

Victoria residents who are willing to provide room or room and board for one or more teachers are being invited to place their names on the list. They can do so by phoning the summer school office at the Legislative Buildings, B.6211.

The faculty has been expanded to conduct classes. In spite of this, certain courses have had to be closed to further registration because numbers are already up to capacity.

Among the 14 visiting lecturers are a number of Canada's outstanding educators. L. S. Beattie, curriculum co-ordinator and director of vocational education for the Ontario Department of Education, Dr. Carter B. Storr of Ottawa; Miss Elizabeth McLeish, Brandon; Miss Norah McCullough, Saskatoon, and David E. Bickell, Calgary, head the list of visiting professors from other parts of Canada.

Fire Destroys Service Station

Damage estimated at between $5,000 and $10,000 was caused a service station owned by Norman Stokes, Cobble Hill early Thursday morning according to R.C.M.P.

A large quantity of tires and tools were destroyed as the 50-square foot building was gutted, police said. No cars were in the building at the time of the blaze.

Police added that the fire was discovered by the owner's wife in their home about 100 yards distant but that little could be done to save the garage.

No cause of the fire was immediately known. Some insurance was carried.

Logger Killed At Bamfield

VANCOUVER, May 25 (CP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police reported today that a logger, identified only by the name of Heintzig, was killed by a falling tree at Bamfield on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

They said a tree, loosened by a storm fell on the man and fatally injured him Wednesday.

ELEVEN IN DRUNK CELL

Too exuberant celebration of May 24 landed some Victorians in the drunk cell at the city jail.

Eleven persons, mostly Indians were arrested by police on drunk charges during the celebrations.

One, who evidently had spent all his money, had to ask Magistrate H. C. Hall for time to pay.

"You've given me time before, your honor," pleaded the accused.

The magistrate consented reluctantly.

Accompanied up the aisle by her father, the bride was radiant in white satin fashioned on princess lines with net over-skirt, off-shoulder folds of satin and long fitted sleeves and point. A halo of seed pearls held her floor length veil of illusion net and her bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley contained a silver horseshoe sent for good luck by her aunt in Scotland.

Miss Frances Randall, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, in a pale yellow eyelet organdy. The toast was given by Mr. H. C. J. Reston, Chief of Police of Golden.

Now...a new SURF...gets washes TWICE-AS-SWEET as ANY other leading washday suds!

SCIENTIFIC TESTS PROVE IT!
SURF is twice as effective in removing odour—gets out every trace
SURF gets out more dirt, even greasy "invisible" dirt that other suds leave.
SURF is 7 times as effective against germs. Makes your clothes germ-resistant
YOU CAN TELL BY THE SMELL . . .
Just sniff the fresh-air sweetness of Surf clean clothes! New SURF gets clothes sweeter than ever because it gets them cleaner than ever! Takes out hidden dirt, grease and germs that all other leading washday suds leave in your clothes to gray or yellow them. Surf-clean clothes are fresh-air-sweet, even when dried indoors.
SURF
gives you the sweetest wash

New Surf gets clothes so much cleaner you can smell the difference. Twice as effective in getting out odour. Clothes smell sweet, fresh as a sea-breeze!

The Surf at your grocer's now is the new Surf—in a brand new box. Tests show it's even better than Surf used to be. And so much better than other washday suds—not only gets white things whiter, colors brighter, but gives you a wash that's actually twice as sweet.

Here's the reason: Surf contains a wonderful detergent that gets out more of the dirt, grease, and germs. And it gets out every trace of dirt's ugly odour—twice as much as any other suds. Gets clothes so clean you don't even need to rinse. (If you prefer to rinse, try the work saving tip at right.)

Safer than ever—for everything! Easier on hands. Gentle to fine fabrics—not a regular whiz at whisking out the dirt from the heaviest, grimiest things you have to wash. Try it, next washday. Get a whiter, brighter, sweeter Surf-clean wash. If it's Surf clean—it's really clean!

TRY THIS LATEST WASHDAY TRICK
IT'S SO EASY—
IT'S SO QUICK!

ADD SURF to the rinse water. At . . . for the . . . this . . . SWEET . . . fresh air scent . . . even when dried indoors.

Culbertson On Bridge

A group of well-known experts held highly conflicting opinions about the key bid in today's deal.

When this deal came up in a New York club, the bidding proceeded:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	2 hearts	Pass	4 hearts
Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

West easily made his doubled contract, South winning only one spade trick, one diamond and one club, and North of course winning nothing. This outcome was particularly distressing to North-South inasmuch as they could have made four spades against any defence.

South, looking for solace, submitted the hand to six ranking experts and asked what they would have done in his position, over four hearts. This was the "vote."

One expert said he would pass. One said he would do the same as South did—double. The other four said they would bid four spades.

It is not remarkable that the vote ran as it did, but it is strange that these experts agreed to deliver any opinion on the bare facts of the matter, without knowing just how good a player South's partner was! For that, obviously, is the key position. Presumably, the experts who bid four spades were protecting themselves against an unreliable partner—that is the only reasonable assumption that can be made.

If, however, "ideal conditions" are assumed, i.e., if North and South form an experienced and expert partnership, the double stands out as the only logical action. With West bidding hearts at the two-level and East jump-raising, this expert North will know that South's double is not based on heart strength and is therefore not primarily a business double; and so, holding four cards in South's spade suit, or substantial length in either minor suit, this expert North would unhesitating take out the double—which, of course, would be right in line with South's wishes. In short, South's "proper" action would seem to depend entirely on his appraisal of his partner.

W.I.L. Players Still on Move In Power Bids

Western International Baseball League clubs continue to make player changes. Latest club to add strength is the Tri-City Braves, who have signed Pitcher Jack Brewer, Outfielder Mel Reeves and Infielder Sam Kanelos.

Brewer once had a trial with the New York Giants and later played in the Coast League. Reeves is coming up from the Class "C" California State League. Kanelos played with Waterloo last season.

At Spokane, Manager Alan Strange announced the Indians have optioned Bob Reynolds, 18-year-old Negro shortstop, to El Centro of the Class "C" Southwestern International League.

Vancouver Capilanos are planning some player moves. They want to trade Jim Robinson, veteran third-baseman, for a pitcher and probably will entertain bids for Outfielder Jim Keating and a first-baseman. They have Chuck Abernathy at the initial sack now but expect Don Richmond to join the club within a short while. Jim Moore, with Victoria last season, is also expected to join the Caps within a month.

Twenty-Two Horses Set To Gallop in King's Plate

TORONTO, May 25 (CP).—A fast and crowded track was predicted for tomorrow's 92nd running of the King's Plate classic at Woodbine track here.

Twenty-two horses are ready to run as large a field as ever ran in the gallop for the guineas, the oldest continuously-run race in North America. It was seen likely, however, that two and perhaps three entries will drop out before post time at about 3:50 p.m. E.D.T.

To handle the start, two gates have been borrowed from Toronto's Dufferin and Long Branch tracks with a total of 20 stalls, and the track will be widened for about 100 feet from the start.

Morning showers are forecast but the weather man says the sun will shine in the afternoon.

In the draw for post positions, two favorites found themselves listed well out in the outside.

Scapa Flow, R. J. Speers' bay filly from Winnipeg, is No. 8, while Mount Branca is No. 21. Three other favorites made the first five—Sis Bunty on the rail, Libertine next to her and E. P. Taylor's Britannia, the winter-book favorite, in the fifth position.

Three top-notch riders from the United States will be up. W. F. Morrissey imported Bobby Permane to ride his Bill Armstrong, while Ken Church will be one of the favorites, Donstan, and J. Nicholls will ride Mount Branca.

Canadian Wins Big Ten Mile

EVANSTON, Ill., May 25 (AP).—Dog McEwen, Michigan University's crack miler from Ottawa, splashed to a record of 4:09 tonight at the Big Ten's track championships in rain-soaked Dyche Stadium.

McEwen, winning by five yards over Ohio State's Len Truex, bettered the 1936 conference mark of 4:10.8 set by Indiana's Don Lash.

McEwen pulled out in front at the start. Truex tried to catch the Michigan star in the stretch and came up to within a yard, but lost as the Canadian ace lunged into the tape.

Self-Exile Loses In Paris Tourney

PARIS, May 25 (AP).—Wladislaw Skonecki, who chose exile from Poland a few days ago to play tennis without Iron Curtain interference, was eliminated from the French international championships today.

Two mysterious, unidentified strangers watched the Pole's play closely through dark glasses as he was beaten by Fausto Gardini of Italy, 6-3, 8-6, 6-4.

The strangers didn't bother him, Skonecki said.

A Lodging for the Night

"No rooms left," barked the clerk to the young soldier and his bride.

So Winstringer, overhearing, obeyed a generous (if embarrassing) impulse and offered to share his room with them. How could he know he was changing the course of two young lives?

In June Reader's Digest, Katharine Brush tells this true story of a simple gesture—and the amazing sequel that developed seven years later.

Don't miss this heartwarming, human story . . . a touching drama in everyday life.

Fredric March Slated to Take Role Of Lee Cobb in "Death of Salesman"

HEARD IN HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, May 24 (NS)—I am not checking this story because I know it's true—that Fredric March is slated to play the Lee Cobb role in "Death of a Salesman" for Stanley Kramer. The deal I hear is all wrapped up, signed, sealed and delivered.

This will be one of Kramer's first films on his Columbia picture program, and he really has an impressive cast. Mildred Dunnock, who played the wife on the stage, and Cameron Mitchell, who was one of the sons, will play their same roles in the picture.

Seems to me I remember—and correct me if I'm wrong—that originally Fredric March turned down "Death of a Salesman" on Broadway and then regretted it after it became such a smash hit.

GOING TO ROME

Paulette Goddard is due in Rome in October to co-star with a European actor yet to be selected, for the first of a series on Boccaccio's "Decameron." Paulette made this deal with Mike Frankovitch to film "Loves of Boccaccio," one of the famous episodes, while she and Mike were in the East.

In the production of this classic, Mike will have the assistance of Dr. William Szekely and Renzo Rossellini, brother of Ingrid Bergman's Rossellini, for the music, taken from the opera "Boccaccio."

MAL BOYD STORY

The extraordinary story of Mal Boyd will be filmed by Ida Lupino and Collier Young. Mal, a successful Hollywood press agent and TV producer on Buddy Rogers' show, out of the blue gave up his career to become an Episcopalian minister.

Ida and Collier, who had luck making films from "true to life" situations, have asked Mal to write his own story. Mal achieved what most young men consider success in Hollywood—a big salary, car, home with a swimming pool, working with celebrated people.

But, somewhere along the line he found that the material things in life are not the real secret of happiness and right at the height of his success he turned to spiritual things.

EASTER RELEASE

The very first independent production ever to be released on the Warner Brothers' program is Abbott and Costello's "Jack and the Beanstalk."

When Bud and Lou outlined the story to Jack Warner "he thought it was so good that he plans to release it next Easter, because he believes it will be a great thing for children, as well as grownups.

This glorified fairy tale, with emphasis on the comedy, is to be made by Abbott and Costello's Cosman Productions, their own company.

The Gift of Health

By DR. J. B. WARREN

The man without the gift of health appears tired and 'labby.' His shoulders droop and he has a beaten look on his face.

The physically fit man has a strong or aggressive appearance, muscles firm, shoulders erect, and a firm, elastic walk.

What about you? Do you lack the gift of health? If you do, you can improve yourself by finding out what is wrong with your diet, your exercise, your rest and your personal health habits. Disease detected in its earliest stage can be combated.
